PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The privilege and opportunity of education in the Santa Monica High School has been given the members of the 1927 graduating class through the efforts and sacrifices of the citizens of the City of Santa Monica. We wish to express our appreciation for the splendid loyalty and generosity which has made possible this school and its equipment. It is our hope that the parents and friends will be well satisfied with the results as expressed by this graduating class.

This Nautilus contains a history of the accomplishments of this year as well as a record of the activities of the individual members of the class.

We are proud of your record as a class. You have developed a great deal in the past three years. Your education has just begun, for if you now cease to develop and grow educationally you have in reality ceased to live. This development has been made possible through your own efforts and the consistent work and devotion of a corps of efficient teachers who have at all times had your best interests uppermost in their minds.

Now the last high school recitation has been made, your record is complete, graduation is at hand and the entire community proudly celebrates this event. We wish you continued success, and we feel it will come if you have made the ideals and hopes of the Santa Monica High School a real part of your life.

GIRLS' VICE-PRINCIPAL

At Santa Monica High School we have become associated for a common purpose, that is we are in pursuit of education. Let us never lose sight of the fact that all effort to secure knowledge and skill is wasted unless, in gaining these, we also develop character and a desire to serve. To build from nature's gifts a character that daily approaches nearer and nearer our ideal, and to make every individual or group that we meet in life a little happier because we have passed by, these are the only objectives that give a real meaning to life.

ETHEL M. ROBINSON.

BOYS' VICE-PRINCIPAL

The more we see of success and failure in life the more we are obliged to recognize that brains and training are of little consequence in a man unless he uses them as instrumentalities to inspire confidence. If men should call you dull and slow, see to it at least that you make them call you true. The little you have learned in school will take care of itself only insofar as men may know where to find you every hour of the day. Knowledge without reliability has no place in your progress through the world.

ROSEMARY AND REASONS

On that momentous occasion when the senior is presented with a sheep-skin parchment, he is given not only a precious document acknowledging three years of high school work favorably completed, but he is also presented with a rosemary that will in his later and less foolish years help him to recall the many happy days he spent on Prospect Hill among agreeable companions and amid a colorful atmosphere of admirable architecture and superbly planned landscape. It will enable him to recall more or less delightful teachers and days of interesting or uninteresting studying. At some distant day when the one-time senior draws out his diploma from amongst other souvenirs—a crumbled flower, a bit of pink lace, a wrinkled note, etc.—across his memory will flash a moving panorama of exciting and amusing remembrances—football games and hilarious rallies; enjoyable dances in the gymnasium and charming companions of the occasions; funny incidents that happened in the class rooms, in the halls or on the campus; old friends and hours spent on the front steps or elsewhere in boisterous laughter and bantering conversation; the prankful denbies who hurled water-bags from the outside balconies, giving some unfortunate fellow an out-of-place bath; the sound of marbles rolling down the floor of the assembly during an uninteresting lecture; the time all the balls except one were removed from a certain student's desk and when he sat down the last was taken out, sending student and desk crashing to the floor amid loud laughter.

The senior's remembrances will consist not only of these incidents but others of another kind. He will envisage the lovely green, sloping grounds set with fine old trees or healthy saplings, some already claimed by classes that have graduated; the approach to the main building, up the diagonal brick walk, across the circle and then the ascending steps; the idling and laughing students there; the Roman tower silhouetted against a velvet sky that would cause the Italian variety to blush, the investing ivy already concealing a large surface of the tapestried brick; the view from the balconies, to the west the clean and empty horizon of the ocean, to the north the some time purpled mountains, and the sometimes snow-capped mountains visible from the other side of the school; the windows in the library; the organ belching in response to untaught fingers; the suggestively wild path near the southeast corner, the beautiful portals on the Seventh Street side of the library building; the fine memorial gate, the wonderful open air theatre that is so little appreciated by students and villagers alike, the inadequate gymnasiums and the small athletic field. Just a few of the many things that might leave a lasting impression on anybody who has lingered for a time in the school. And there are many others of a more roseate hue, that he will recall, such as the first day after the vacations, the big game, hobo day, the junior-senior brawl, the junior prom and, above all, commencement.

The knowledge that this reminiscing will occur, is half the raison d'être of the Nautilus. Like the diploma, it is a rosemary, and if there is a purpose behind it, then it is to preserve in book form the student's memories of his days spent at Santa Monica High School. The Nautilus gives a sharpness and vividness to these remembrances that the diploma is incapable of doing. At the same time it offers an excellent drill field for whatever young talents—and some of them surprisingly accomplished, too—may care to contribute. The work, or rather pleasure, of editing the Nautilus is entered into by the members of the staff, both teachers and students, with much vigor and considerable joy. Through the sagacious help of instructors, the members of the staff attempt to incorporate between the covers of the book a little of everything that is representative of the high school. The literary, artistic and athletic efforts of the students all come in for recognition, as does a little of everything else that goes to make up the color and charm from September to June.

EDITORIAL

"The Samohi" staff has striven this year to establish a precedent of a "better school paper each year." Santa Monica High School is enlarging every year, and it is only right that the paper should follow the trend of progress. The most prominent feature connected with the paper this year was the holding of the Southern California Press Convention at S. M. H. S. The present staff leave the paper with the newly elected managers, hoping they may profit by this year's mistakes.

HISTORY

"The tumult and the shouting dies
The captains and the kings depart."—Kipling.

Dusk has fallen. The echo of the last footstep has spent itself within the empty halls of Samohi. With mournful tread and heavy hearts the teachers pace the floor. The bouergoisie hang their heads in awe. They are stunned, mute with sorrow—Life for them is over—withered leaves tossed by blighting winds. Their only hope the school's salvation, the Winter Class of '27 has left the fold in search of Eldorado—!

Just a word about this most illustrious band of Winter '27's. Like diamonds set in onyx they stand out from the rabble. All knees are bent to the Queen of Intellectual phenomena. Miss Hillver, president of the Honor Scholarship Society and salutatorian, Miss Jenkins and Mr. Moody have cast their historic bombshell among the Wondering Herd. Among the men of letters are such champions as Mr. Machado, dean of baseball, Mr. Fossett, president of the Lettermen's Club and mainstay of the football team, and Mr. Malone, czar of trackmen. Mr. Gates has proved himself to be a desirable addition to the institution inasmuch as he has been commissioner of finance and also served on the Executive Board. Mr. Nolan, in whose capable hands lie the destinies of the class, is also president of the Debate Club and president of the Mathematics Club.

The fifth and unquestionably the best Winter Class was organized in October, 1926. The first charitable work was to make the Senior B play a success—Miss Jenkins on the stage and Mr. Bird in the box-office. By their dance the Senior A's established a lofty criterion against which future generations may beat their futile hands in vain. A precedent indeed!

Alas that these brave souls must pass on, but the Fates decree. "Jacta est alea!"

HISTORY

The Class of '27 entered Samohi in 1924 as Sophomores. We were introduced to the school by Virgil Cazal as the class of "Vim, vigor, vitality and punch". By our interest in all branches of scholastic affairs we soon won the respect of our upperclassmen. The success of our Sophomore year was the Sophomore Skip.

Our Junior year is a record of glorious deeds. We were known for our scholarship and athletic ability, and many of our number became prominent debaters, speakers, managers, writers and musicians. Our renowned class play was "Peg O' My Heart", one of the best plays ever given in the history of Samohi. Then came the Junior Prom in the Open Air Theater, the most enjoyable event of the year and memorable above all other dances for beauty of setting.

Now we come to 1927. We are the Seniors, leaders in every activity of school life. Our services are unrivalled by any class that has preceded us. The officers elected during our senior year are: Phil Neill, president, Marshall Duffield, vice-president; and Fern Kasl, secretary-treasurer. To these we entrusted the leadership and guidance of our class affairs and to them much of our success is due.

Three unforgettable events of the year were the Senior B dance, the wonderful Senior play "The Whole Town's Talking", and the inter-class track meet, which we won.

This year sees the realization of our dream of the pipe organ for which we gave our best efforts as Juniors and Seniors. The pipe organ with its chimes and peals of wonderful music will, in a way, be a memorial to the Class of '27.

All that yet remains of our high school career for us is Senior week. We have reached the goal toward which we have been striving. On June 23, 1927, we shall reap our harvest, graduation, the crowning glory of all our years of study.

HISTORY

The history of the winter class of '28 has been unusual thus far.

When the class met to have its picture taken, we had no officers. Miss Robinson called the meeting to order and our class election was held immediately. James McNairy was unanimously chosen as president, Beth Stout, Vice-President, and Blanche Bendsen, Secretary. This was the first time in the history of Samohi that a class has been organized in such a manner, but with Miss Robinson as our faculty adviser and James McNairy as our president it seems that success and prosperity will surely be ours.

Although we are a winter class and have had no activities of our own, we have always faithfully supported the affairs within the school. We shall, however, have the opportunity to do so in this year's Junior Prom, and next year we hope to have many successful affairs of our own.

HISTORY

Ahoy! The good ship '28 has just docked after a year's successful cruise.

Captain Whitley Rutherford proved the steadiness of his sea-legs and was ably assisted by first and second mates, respectively Bond Pope and Betty Boswell.

Among the well-known passengers interviewed by this reporter were: Bernarr Bates, vice-president of Samohi's Student Body; Clapp, Kell and Fox, our football heroes, Jurich, the center of attraction in basketball; Quinn, the captain of our baseball team; Pancho of the hundred league boots; Doris Doeg and Ruth Koch, starring in tennis, and Fern Buckner, the feminine of Fritz Kreisler.

The class is honored by having many of its members in the orchestra and in the Honor Scholarship Society. Many of the juniors who are now members of this Society, are expected to receive pins and seals when they graduate.

Although only sophomores when the great drive for a "Samohi Pipe Organ" began, this class greatly assisted in raising the money for it, and the school's dream was realized when this organ was dedicated to Santa Monica High School, April 20, 1927.

The landmarks passed on this cruise, The Junior Play, Mrs. Partridge Presents, and the Junior Prom, proved to be two big events of the year and were enjoyed by all.

So this class, which has proved successful as juniors, hopes to do better when seniors, and forever uphold the banners of Samohi.

HISTORY

The class of '29 got off to a very successful start by having the largest membership in the school, and also being active in all branches of school activities.

Many sophomores excelled in athletics. Those who made the basketball teams were, Francis Quinn, William Athey, Edward Engbertson, Ernest Miller, Charles Thomas, Ernest Arbuckle, and Robert De Roos. There were also many sophomores who made letters in football; namely, James Mac Glashan, Vearl Whitehead, Chester Fitzsimmons, Billy Gillies, Frank Weber, Stephen Gary, John Card, and James English. Billy Doeg excelled in tennis, while James Crum was the star sophomore of the track team.

They also showed their talent in dramatics, entering into many of the club plays and skits. The class was honored by having many members in the orchestra and the Honor Scholarship Society, and many who are now members are expected to receive high honors when they are graduated.

One of the biggest and most successful events in the Class History was the Sophomore Skip given on April 8, 1927, in the girls' gymnasium from eight o'clock to eleven o'clock. The gymnasium was decorated with Blue and Gold streamers from the center, with different kinds of shrubbery around the sides. The class succeeded in securing the Seven Melody Makers as an orchestra, and the dance was enjoyed by all present. This event was one of the most successful in the year, and it adds a finishing touch to the Class History.

SEPTEMBER 13—

September the thirteenth, unlucky ol' day,
One thousand entered the door;
The students flock in as the teachers turn on
The Fountain of Knowledge once more.

OCTOBER 8—

Max Berg's new Ironhorsemen held Huntington Park
In the first Bay League game—three to three,
Marsh Duffield's smart toe scored the life-saving point
When it looked like the foe's victory!

OCTOBER 10—

This must be the forest primeval,
Though it's really the new girls' reception.
You could tell that they all were but sophomores
From their pale-greenish school-girl complexions.

OCTOBER 15—

The trusty old Sea Lions massacred Venice
To the sweet tune of nothing but jazz
A dance in the evening with Venice's best
Topped off the great victory

NOVEMBER 11—

A little prize for the team
That came out of the game
Left us with a very Extensive collection

NOVEMBER 12—

Sweet strains of Mark Sale's red hot jazz band
The dance of the club federation.
Fancy stunts, palm trees or what have you?
And a crowd full of pep and elation

NOVEMBER 19—

With much talking and argument the debate
Season started
With a victory of seven to one
Elizabeth Henninger and Margaret Ballough.
Being women, they talked till they won!

DECEMBER 10—

Lawton Fox was the captain elect
For next year's football team
At the letter box party at the school
The drink they served was superior

DECEMBER 10—

Chappie Ryan and his orchestra
Showed how red-hot they could play,
The Senior B Dance, as usual,
Was swell in every way.

DECEMBER 3 AND 4—

"The Whole Town's Talking" was the Senior
P. A.
Batchelor in the lead of the
To see him woo would tickle the nose
While Miss Webster furnishes the soul.

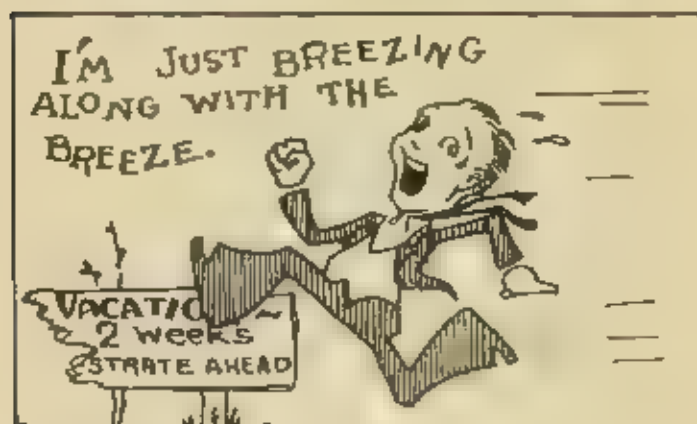

DECEMBER 10 TO 17

A successful Christmas card sale
Was held by the department of art;
Nelson, Picco, Whitehead and Thomas
Designed cards that were smart.

DECEMBER 17—

To help cheer the city's needy,
Who don't have a Christmas Day,
A benefit program was given,
Of music and a play

DECEMBER 17—

Two weeks of rest then back aga'n,
Was each sad student's lot;
But in the meantime Santa came—
And all that sort of rot.

JANUARY 6—

The Bay Woman's Club as a holiday present
Gave a symphony concert, all free—
Henry Rothwell conducted his mighty ensemble
Before the centre A S B

JANUARY 28—

Presidents came from all over the state
To the annual Presidents' Convention
The hall was well filled with forums and speeches,
And a banquet worth special mention

FEBRUARY 11—

The winter course was over
Finished the course in the hall
And started for the new world
Prepared for work or play

FEBRUARY 12—

Under the illustrious Jane P. Hall
The Girls' League met and was told
The bareness of the kitchen after cards
Proved Mrs. Hazard's tale exaggerated

FEBRUARY 14—

The midwinter soph'more reception
Was a sight to be long remembered
The poor things looked frightened, but strange to relate,
Not one was wholly dismembered!

FEBRUARY 25

False whiskers, butters grease put and alarm clock
Old words and it was a pretty day,
Stone and deride, and a piece,
The old body

MARCH 11

Mrs. Hazzard fixed the eatables,
The girls all sang the songs,
John Biers gave an address
The court was young

MARCH 18—

Colorful costumes and maidens galore,
A sight that would startle the sphinx,
No boys were admitted (we wonder why)
To the yearly all-girls' gym jinx.

MARCH 25 AND 26—

With Buckner, Matson, Henn and Keating
And all the brilliant cast.
The Junior play, a peppy one,
Was perfect to the last

APRIL 5

Fred t Arbuckle, the diminutive sophomore,
Made his skip a first-class affair
The music was sappy the lighting superb;
A nice, peppy gathering was there

April 20—

The organ dream came true at last
At the student dedication
The organ was dedicated
And the student body

April 22—

With puppets so real that they seemed 'most alive
The marionette show was
The P. T. A. gave the perfo
It surely was some trick!

April 24—

The Venetians were mopped up in beautiful form.
Twenty to three was the dirt.
The game made an excellent track meet.
We hope that they didn't feel hurt!

April 26—

Press delegates from all over the state
Found Samohi before their attention
When it was decided to make our school
The site of the press convention

May 8 to 14—

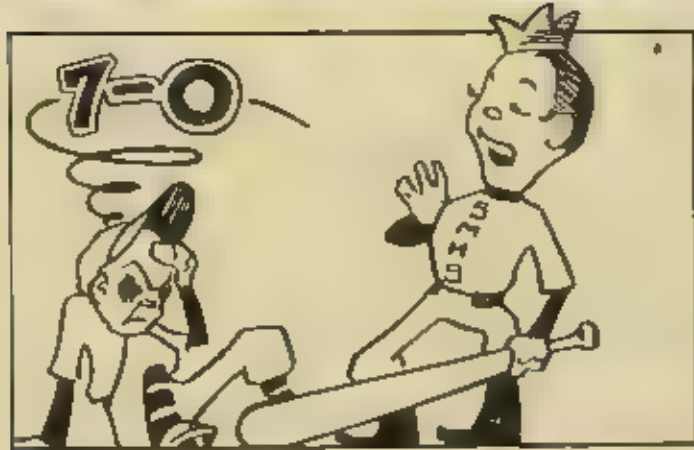

"Music hath charms" was exemplified
During National Music Week.
A hot concert given by students at school
Was sure plenty mean, so to speak!

MAY 11--

Everyone dressed up and coached to their best,
What to do, how to act, what to say
So to look very natural and unprepared
On annual parents' day.

MAY 26--

San Pedro was vanquished, seven to none.
The sixth victim to fall at our feet
Three homers, some triples and plenty of singles,
Made a game that kept all on their feet.

MAY 27--

Ceremonies impressive marked Memorial Day.
Don Hecker directed the skit.
The orchestra played Robert Kingdon sang.
The whole thing was voted a "hit."

MAY 31--

A fashion show held by the Girls' League
Showed the girls how to dress, you know;
How to fix this and that and the other thing.
So that all will be dressed up just so!

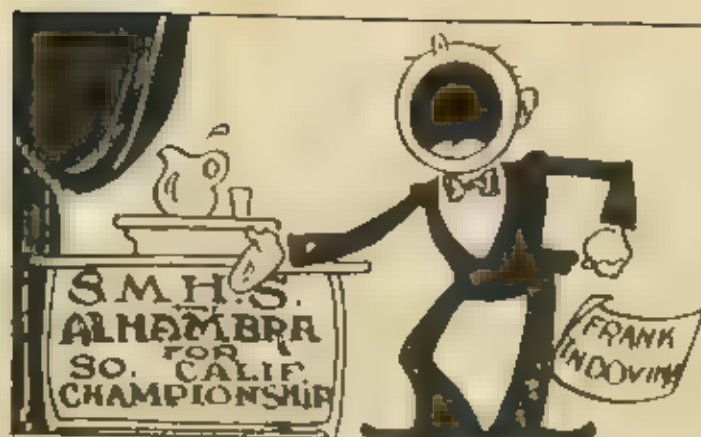

JUNE 1 -

A hard-earned victory in tennis;
Another championship was ours;
To Al Blatz, the hero of the season,
Go the artificial flowers.

JUNE 2 -

As this book goes to press we're in silent
suspense;
The Alhambra deb to yet to come
If we've won we're the champions, if we've lost—s' just too bad
Let us turn to hymn one ninety

JUNE 3—

How all the young sheiks hopped around their dames
'Twas a sight for the eye to behold!
All praise to the juniors for such a Prom
Every ticket they printed was sold

JUNE 16-17

The annual Boys' and Girls' Vodvil
A sure played, the boys sure sang
The girls sure danced—and how!

JUNE 21—

The fatal time is draw near
The seniors pale and gray
Attempt to look quite dignified
Upon their great Class Day

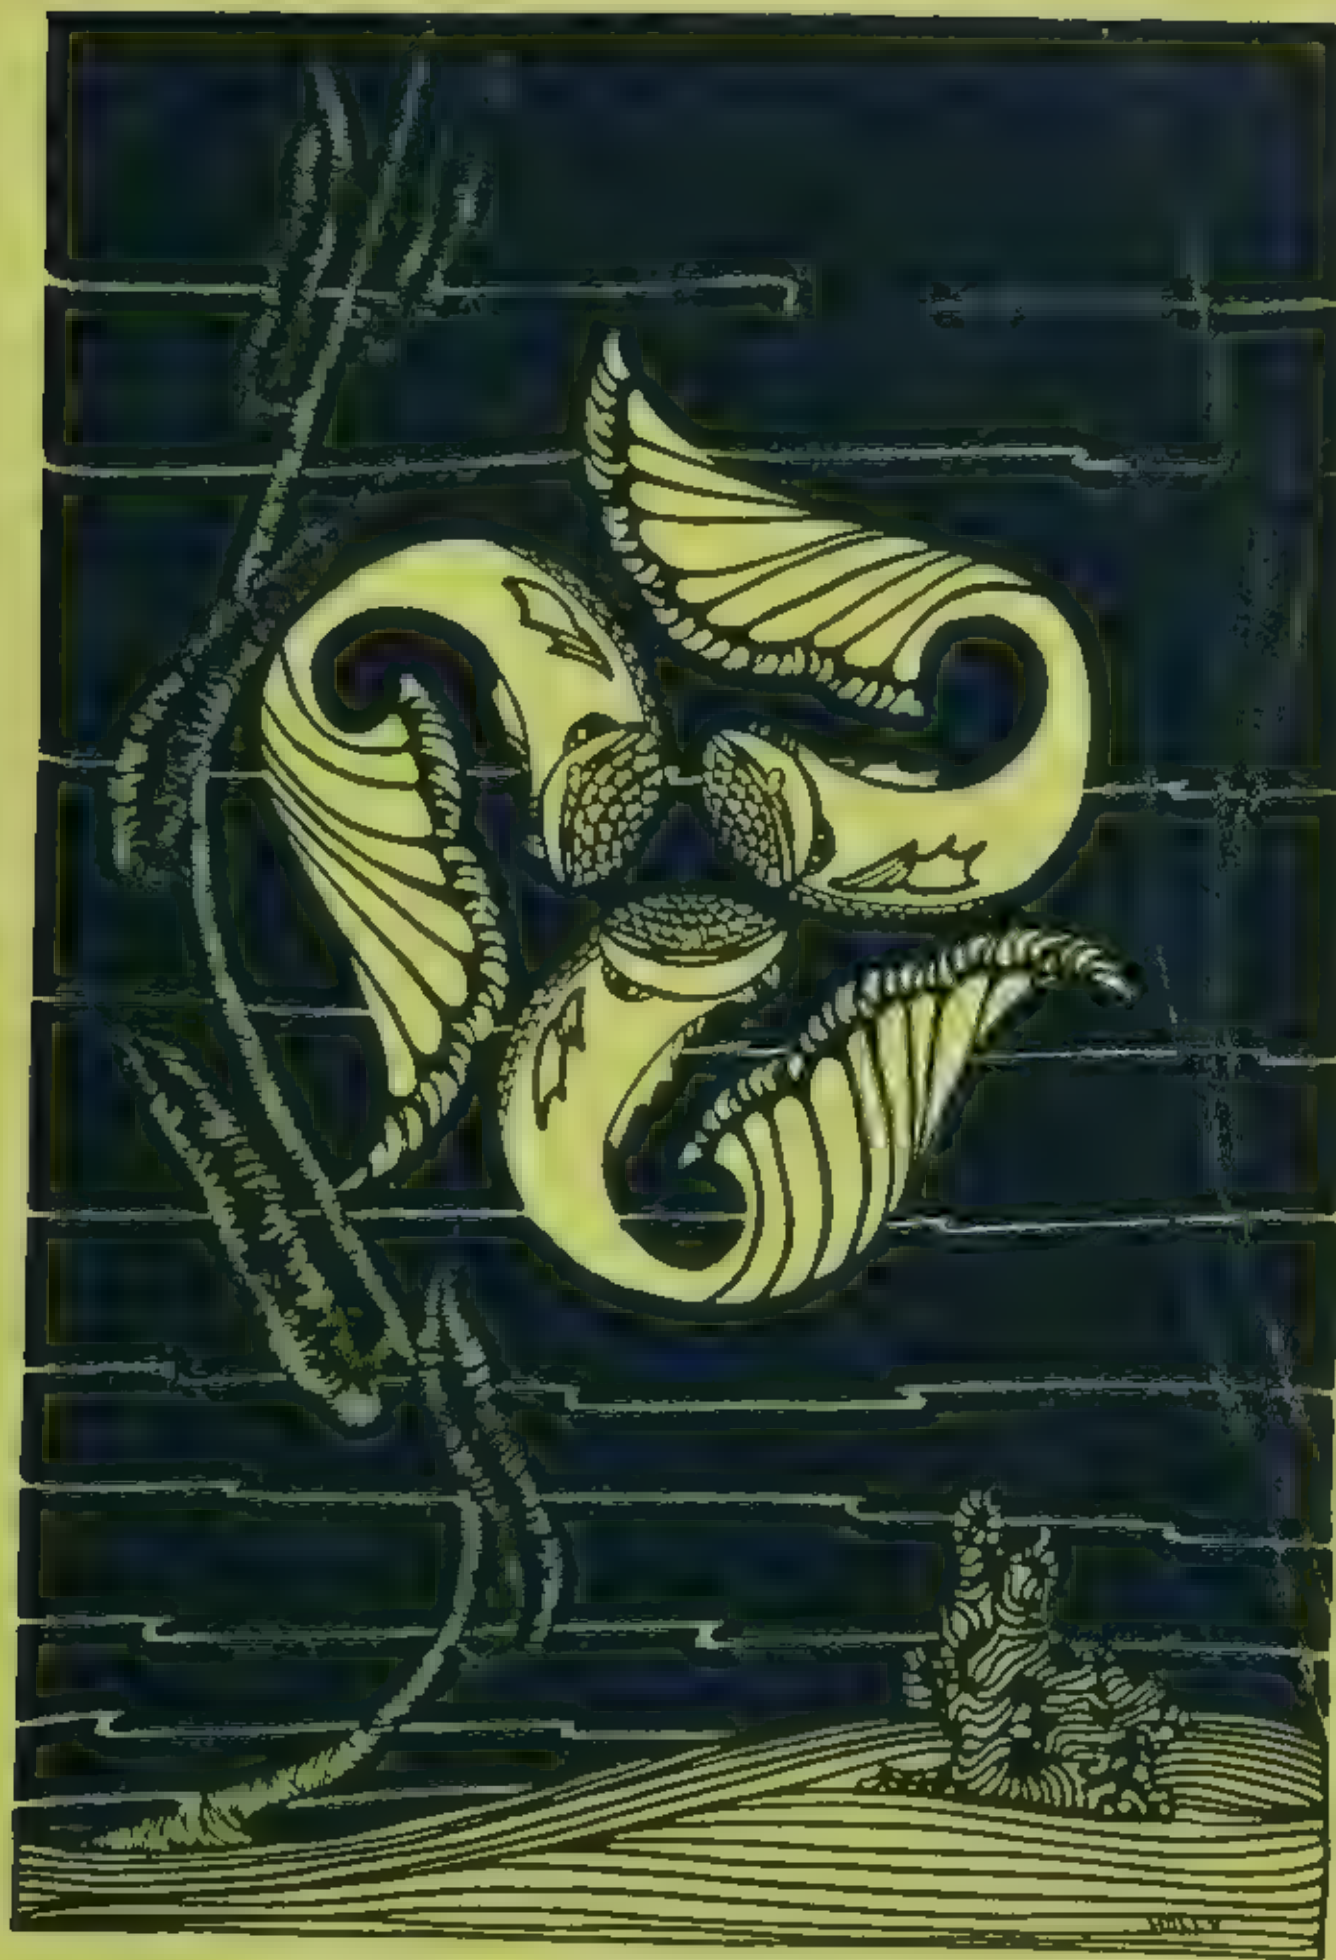

JUNE 23—

The seniors are cast to the cold, cruel world,
Their diplomas tucked under their arms,
Their brains filled with knowledge, their purses
with air.
They face life and its sad alarms

My dear
I have just received

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

VIRGIL CAZEL

This is Virgil Cazel, President of the Associated Student Body for 1926-1927. His administration has proved a notable one in the history of Samohi. He brought to the office a lofty ideal of service, and this fact has actuated him in all his plans and policies. With most commendable and unabated zeal he has labored for the best interests of the students and the School. His reward is their appreciation and respect. The State Student Body Presidents' Convention, so successfully carried out, was Virgil's plan. He has carried on the work in behalf of the Organ fund and has interested himself in every worthy enterprise in which the school was engaged. All in all, Virgil has shown a most admirable school spirit and has made an unusually fine leader.

GEORGE LIPSCOMB,
Secretary, Associated Student Body.

The Bookstore Club was founded by Virgil Cazel, commissioner of bookstore, 1925-26.

The club was carried on by Jack Mahood, commissioner of bookstore, 1926-27.

The club consists this year of Jack Mahood, Virgil Cazel, Bond Pope, Whitley Rutherford, William Moeller, Richard Thompson, Jimmie McNairy, Jack Wright, Harry Devore, Henry Moeller, and F. E. Lord, faculty adviser.

The Students' Store this year was managed by Jack Mahood, commissioner of bookstore with the advisory help of F. E. Lord, auditor. The members of the club operate the Students' Store.

The store sells all the supplies needed by the students for their work in the class rooms, also it sells pennants, streamers, and novelties for football, basketball, track and baseball seasons.

Whatever is made by the Students' Store is in turn given to the Associated Student Body. Last year $1,000 was given to the pipe organ fund. This year money was given for the Nautilus fund, for membership in the "Society for the Study of Secondary Education in California," and for the A. S. B. fund.

With the co-operation of the students this has been a very successful year for the bookstore.

HONOR SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Faculty Adviser

The society has had a very successful year, with Cecile Hillyer as president the first semester and Glenn Myers filling the office the last semester. The membership has been 81, slightly less than in the past, but this is due partly to the exclusion of Freshmen by their retention in Junior High. About six seal bearers are expected this June. A permanent record is to be kept hereafter of all graduating seal-bearers, as they have done an actual service to the school in upholding scholarship standards.

It is becoming an actual investment to gain membership in the California Scholarship Federation since the Phi Beta Kappa has offered aid to seal-bearers entering college, and several colleges have offered tuition scholarships for the first year of college.

The other work of Chapter 97 has been ably handled by the four standing committees, of which the chairmen are as follows: Dick Unger, Assembly committee chairman; Alex Horwitz, Honors and Privileges committee chairman; James Robertson, Publicity chairman, and Nagda Grav, chairman of the Entertainment committee. An excellent foundation for the work of the Honors and Privileges committee was laid in the first semester by Verne Herzog, acting as chairman of this committee.

The society was represented at the Riverside Convention of the California Scholarship Federation by ten delegates and at Fresno Convention by three delegates. Frederick Stineman represented the society at a banquet to Manual Arts.

The Home Economics Club is composed of girls who have had at least one year of work in the Home Economics Department, or those who are taking that type of work during the current year.

The object of the club is to bring girls of the Home Economics Department together for pleasure and improvement, to promote high ideals and good fellowship among the members of the club and to extend their influence in the home and community.

Two social meetings are held during the year, and the first of these was a Christmas party held in the flat on December 7. A musical and literary program was given by the girls. Gifts for all, from the Christmas tree, were distributed. The second meeting was held late in the spring.

Programs with outside speakers are a feature of a number of the meetings. Among the prominent speakers of this year are: Mrs. Kolor of the Pacific Palisades Art Shop, who spoke on "Art in the Home"; Mr. Tucker, an expert on manufacture of china, and Mrs. Vaughn from the Express Home Economics Department in Los Angeles. A fashion revue conducted by the proprietor of one of the leading style shops in the Bay district was scheduled for one of the spring meetings at the time the Nautilus went to press.

Membership in the Music Club is open to all those interested in music, whether or not they are members of music classes. This club, the largest in school, with a membership of about 150, has for its purpose the following ideals: To raise the standard of music in the school; to create a broader understanding and greater interest in good music; to advance student talent; to support and promote all musical activities; and to promote artists' concerts in school and community.

The Music Club has undertaken several projects during the year: The children's concerts, the Philharmonic concerts, and the responsibility for the sale of tickets for the De Cou Dream Pictures for the benefit of the Pipe Organ Fund.

In October an informal program and Hallowe'en party was given. The annual tea given for the parents and friends of the club members was held in April.

The following programs were held throughout the year: In November, "Music of the British Isles"; in January, a recital given by the piano department under the direction of Miss Cronkhite; in March, the Beethoven Centennial. In April, Miss Moon presented several Harmony students in original compositions; and in May, "Music of Spain and Italy".

SPANISH CLUB

THERMA RICHARDSON...	President
JACK ANDERSON.....	Vice-President
FRANCIS BAIRD		Secretary-Treasurer
HENRIETTA CEJUDO.....	Faculty Adviser

The Spanish Club is probably one of the most interesting of all the clubs in the Santa Monica High School. Members must be Spanish students or those who have had two years of Spanish. Consequently the club members are all intensely interested in their subject.

The club was organized for the purpose of making a special study of the customs, literature and music of Old Spain and Latin America. The Club meetings are conducted entirely in Spanish, thus aiding the students to a thorough understanding of conversational Spanish. Splendid programs are presented at the meetings. Oftentimes a speaker is procured who can describe his experiences while traveling through Spain. Short one-act plays are sometimes given, entirely in Spanish, which are both entertaining and instructive.

The success of the club's programs and plays is due to the splendid co-operation of Mrs. Cejudo, the club's adviser. The members appreciate that it is through her great interest and hard work that their organization is able to make real progress in their chosen subject.

Parlez-vous français un peu? If so, join the French Club and have a good time. Any one taking French or interested in French culture is welcome. The purpose of the club is to promote a closer fellowship with France and its civilization through play, speech, song and game programs. The motto of the club is "Noblesse Oblige," which means that noble manhood and womanhood make a high standard of conduct the pledge of each member.

The November meeting was held in the Recital Hall. Scenes from two plays were given. First "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme," and then "Le Voyage de Monsieur Perrichon." Refreshments were served on the balcony. A "Traveler's Tea" was held in the teachers' cafeteria in January. Three club members, Jane Boswell, Charlotte Fuller, Harold Erickson, who have been to France, gave interesting discussions of their travels while dainty refreshments were served according to an individual French menu.

During March and April the French and Spanish Clubs held meetings jointly exchanging entertainment and refreshment courtesies. The French play was "La Taim est un Grand Inventeur."

A delightful picnic was held in May on the campus. The members were cleverly entertained with frolic and laughter. As the year's work came to a close every member felt indeed as Franklin did when exclaiming, "Every man has two countries, his own and then France."

When the average unlettered student becomes the victim of a lecture on literature, immediately before his mind's eye flashes a volume-laden portrait of unfathomable treatises and long, dry anecdotes written hundreds of years ago to suppress all efforts of progress toward civilization.

Now all the others who have wisdom and letters realize, with Long, that "Literature is the written expression of man's best thought and feeling," and for the purpose of bringing just such a definition as this to the students of Samohi, the Literary Club was formed.

How well we have succeeded depends upon the efforts we have put forth individually and as a club, with the aid of the adviser. During the past year members of the club have kept the Samohi "Literary Corner" partly supplied with poems and short articles. At the Woman's Club section meeting in May, the club co-operated in presenting a program of original short stories, poems and essays. As a summit of activity, the meeting held in May was opened to parents and friends. At this meeting an especially interesting program of selected compositions and poems was read, and Mr. H. A. Linscott, representative of the Ginn Publishing Company, delivered a very worth-while talk on the making, binding, and life of a book.

Undertakings such as these have made up the work of the club in the past year. Though we have felt the need of a Literary Magazine, as have students of other years, we have not found it possible to undertake such a great task. We earnestly hope that our successors will accomplish this worthy piece of work.

Art Omnia La, freely translated, the motto of The Thumbtrack Club means, art is a way of living life, art is worship. The aim of the club is to strive always towards that end. The club sponsors all creative work and includes in its membership many students from other departments who are expressing themselves through music, poetry, drama and dance. The programs given by the club bring artists, interior decorators, architects, lecturers from the community to the student.

The right to wear the D. S. R.—Distinguished Service Ribbon—is conferred by the club upon that student who has done the finest creative work during the year. This year the President's Robe of Office has been designed—an honor robe bearing the seal in design of each past president as part of its decoration, a robe which will, as each year goes by, become richer and finer, symbolic of the ideals of the club.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

ALBERT BLATZ	President
ALBERT LEVY	Vice-President
KATHERINE WOELFEL	Secretary
MARGARET STURGEON	Treasurer
LAURA LIDDLE	Adviser

The Mathematics Club consists of those students interested in discussing some of the phases of mathematics it is necessary to omit from classroom discussion for lack of time. It also aims to bring its members together socially. Membership is limited to those who have enrolled in third-year mathematics.

This year the club has been particularly fortunate in securing speakers. Among them is Dr. Ames of U. S. C., who spoke on Mathematical Curiosities; Mr. Rodgers, of the shop department, whose subject was Shop Mathematics, and at another meeting Mr. Barnum presented his views on Mathematics and its Relation to Life Problems.

In order that the programs might be well balanced, some form of entertainment was introduced consisting of local singers and motion picture slides. This brief history would not be complete without mentioning the delicious refreshments served at the meetings in the flat.

To become a member of the Commercial Club a member must have had one year of some commercial subject. This brings together a group having a real interest in the commercial line.

We wanted to do something new to create a real interest in our club, so for each meeting throughout the year a Commercial Club paper, "Yellow Journalism," was printed, and with great success. It was written in a humorous vein, the major portion dealing with Commercial matters.

Spelling we decided upon as our objective, therefore no club meeting dismissed without an exciting spelling match, a prize given at the close of the year to the club's "crack speller."

Along with many fine musical programs a number of talks were given by business men, among them Mr. Lord, Mr. Mason, and a very interesting talk by an ex-mayor of Santa Monica, Mr. Berkley. Also, Miss E. Thomas gave a very fine illustrated talk on the National Business Show, which was held at the Ambassador.

The Commercial Club sponsored the Commercial Commencement Exercises held in Recital Hall on June 22, and the reception given after the exercises on the balcony, which was decorated in roof-garden style. The evening was termed a great success.

A great deal of the year's accomplishment was due to the help and enthusiasm given by the club's fine faculty adviser, Miss Thomas.

DEBATE SOCIETY

HELEN LORBEER	President
BILLY YATES	Vice-President
BOYD VERPLANK	Secretary-Treasurer
KARL HINDERER	Publicity Manager
OLIVE MORRIS	Faculty Adviser

For four years the debate society has been organized to promote oral self-expression on live and important questions of the day. The club is opened to all members of the A. S. B. interested in this activity.

This year our members have participated in several informal debates and open forums which proved of interest to the students. We have also sponsored two interesting "come-back" debates between the Sophomores and Juniors. As new debating material is often secured in this way, these debates prove of great value to the members of the Debating Society. Other students, by acting as judges for these forensic contests, have shown their interest in the art.

Faculty members and alumni have addressed us on the value of public speaking and the vocations in which public speaking is most important. The programs are varied and made more enjoyable by musical numbers or humorous readings.

Although the club is comparatively small, we feel that our participation in the art of debating is both an instructive and interesting club activity.

Since the Bandbox Players first organized, this group has consistently striven to be the most active in the school. As the club is open to all students interested in the difficult art of acting or the strenuous work of drama production, the membership is always large. Each year the Players, besides having at their meetings well-known writers and actors, present several one-act plays, the cast and directors being conscripted from among the members. The Bandbox Players' organization is grounded upon the desire to make each meeting as replete with entertainment and variety as it is possible to make them. Programs are presented wherein the members may lose themselves in the world of drama—its art, its thrills and its humors.

In the past year the Players have given five exceptionally fine one-act plays. They have also had several well-known artists to talk on the allied arts. If the members have not been highly and well entertained in the past year, they have themselves to blame, for the officers have worked exceedingly hard.

ETHEL BROOKS GIAMPAOLO	Director

Among the prominent organizations of the school is the Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Brooks Giampaolo. It has taken part in some twenty-five programs during the year, outstanding among which are the following: the Music Club programs, the February and June graduations, all of the plays given by the school, which include the Junior and Senior plays; and many of the special assemblies. In fact, the Orchestra has played in connection with all school activities where music is needed. In addition to this, the Orchestra gave an entire program at the Teachers' Institute in December.

The Ensemble, members of which were chosen from the Orchestra, appeared numberless times throughout the year. Particular mention should be made of their performance at Long Beach in February, before the State Public School Music Conference. On this same program appeared other high school organizations. Many reported that the Santa Monica High School Ensemble was the outstanding feature of the evening. In addition, the Ensemble played at many of the Music Club programs and Kiwanis and Rotary Club luncheons. The Ensemble also played at a State Superintendents' Convention luncheon and accompanied an operetta, "Lelewala," given by the Lincoln Junior High School. They were specially selected as one of a few musical organizations chosen to play for the P. T. A. State Convention meeting in Los Angeles in June, at which time Governor Young and State Superintendent John Cooper were present. It might be interesting to know that the community and school calls for the Ensemble have been so urgent and numerous that two ensembles have been organized to take care of these engagements.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

EARL SYLVIA	President

LILLIAN PETTIT	Treasurer
JACK SANDERSON JOYCE	Director
OLIVER GOLDSMITH	Assistant Director
KARL HOLTING	Librarian

The high school band—a new organization in the music department this year,—directed by Mr. J. S. Joyce, has played an important part in the athletic life of Samohi. The band made its initial appearance at the evening gathering held in the Open Air Theatre at the beginning of the football season, and has done much to arouse and foster school spirit.

The band has played at all of the football games held in Santa Monica, at all of the basketball games, and it took an important part in the big parade and bontre party held before the Venice game. The organization also played for the debate with Jefferson High School, giving a short twenty-minute program, as well as at the opening of the movie, "The Lost Battalion" at the Rosemary Theatre. The band participated in the concert given during Music Week by all of the musical organizations of the three high schools, and finished the season with the first annual band concert.

Faculty Adviser

The Letterman's Club can boast of having one of the most successful years in its history. Through the co-operation of our president, Marshall Duffield, and faculty adviser, Coach Max Berg, this result has been made possible. One of the most important moves which the Club has taken into consideration is the adoption of its first constitution. This is considered one of the most important moves that the Club has taken. Another great step of the Club is the initiation of new major lettermen. This is considered a great step toward a big and better club.

The members stand for clean sport and good citizenship. One of their most outstanding ideas is that of upholding the honor of the school, which stands for—Sincerity, Manliness, Honor, and Service.

The first initiation of the year was held in the girls gymnasium. This initiation was enjoyed by all and considered a great success for the first attempt. The football lettermen had the honor of being the first lettermen initiated. It was later found that these initiations should be carried out in a more formal way so that the initiations would always stand out as an annual event of the club.

SCIENCE CLUB

FLORENCE LOUNSBURY	Faculty Adviser

The Science Club has been active this year under the leadership of Roy Ringwald as president, Maurice Buerge as vice-president, Jean Parker as secretary-treasurer, Trixie Robyn as representative and Miss Lounsbury as faculty adviser.

It has been educational in various ways. Those contributing to intellectual advancement of the club were: Mr. Rodgers, who gave an interesting lecture on electricity and electrical devices. Mr. Knupp, prominent teacher of science, in this school, gave an interesting talk on the relation of certain insects to each other. Mr. Shatt, vice-principal, who is well versed in chemistry, delivered an entertaining speech on this science. George Robinson contributed to the interest of the club by giving a valuable talk on physics. Verne Herzog gave a talk on "Fishes That Shock You." At one of the meetings Mr. Fetherolf, head of the Science Department, gave an interesting talk on astronomy, illustrated with slides.

Besides intellectual meetings, the Science Club has had several social affairs which have added to the interest of the club and made it more enjoyable for the members, who are students of Samohi.

Members of the Botany Class made Parents' Day most interesting and educational as well as picturesque by decorating the laboratory with wild flowers. More than one hundred and fifty species of flowers were gathered for the occasion and each was labeled. Prizes were offered for the largest collection.

The Science Club has done very well this year and those who have attended the meetings have derived great benefit from the fine work that was contributed.

The Federation of Clubs of Santa Monica High School consists of three faculty members and one representative from each school club.

The purpose of the Federation is to aid student activities, to plan the calendar of club meetings for the year, to formulate such rules and regulations as they see fit.

The Executive Board consists of four members elected by and from student members of the Council, and three faculty members. All business is transacted by the Executive Board; the other Council members serve as connecting links between the Executive Board and their respective clubs.

Selling of candy this year was carried on by the combination of three or more clubs, that being decided by and the proceeds were divided.

The biggest event of the year for the Federation of Clubs was the Dance, which was held November 12. It was a great success in every way, and everyone had a wonderful time.

The Library Club was organized several years ago by Miss McKinley, for the purpose of bringing the girls together for pleasure and improvement. Any girl who is regularly enrolled in the high school may be a member.

This year we have had some very interesting programs, consisting of talks by members of the club and faculty, music when we had meetings in the flat, book reviews, book games and discussions. Every meeting we read a few chapters from "The Royal Road to Romance" by Richard Haliburton, which is a very interesting story of travel.

This year a Library Council was formed which is an organization of library clubs members and library assistants of the high schools of the Bay District. The council meets twice a year for the purpose of discussing library methods and problems. Several representatives from our Library Club, accompanied by Miss Ross, our adviser, attended the meeting which was held at the Compton Union High School this year. Many interesting talks and discussions were enjoyed and much benefit derived.

The club has had the desire this year to present the library with some sort of a gift. After discussing several plans, we decided upon a ship model, designed and built by Stanley Fish, one of our schoolmates, and presented it to the library in June. In accomplishing this we hope to add pleasure to the library hours of future students by further beautifying our already artistic library, and also to assure ourselves of a place in the memory of the school.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

HELEN KEATING ..	Vice-President
RUTH HAW . . .	Secretary
LOUISE GOLDSMITH .	Treasurer
MARY CARROLL.	Faculty Adviser

In recent years, more and more attention has been paid to physical recreation than ever before. To meet this need for physical recreation, compulsory physical education has been instituted in practically every school where there are capacities for it. Thus we account for present Physical Education Departments.

The Girls' Athletic Club is an organization within the Girls' Physical Education Department. Its purpose, as stated in the club constitution, is: "To co-operate with the Physical Education Department in promoting a spirit of good sportsmanship, and higher physical efficiency among the girls of the High School." To carry out its purpose, the club provides for assistants to the instructors, who aid in clerical work, check room work, and in any other work where assistance is needed. Then the club provides for a program of after-school inter-class activities in sports of all kinds.

The club holds meetings every month and has tried this year to have some outside speaker at each meeting to present some aspect in physical education work. The club has also tried to support every student body activity to the best of its ability.

STAGE AND PROJECTION CREWS

BEN BATCHELOR
DICK HANCOCK
RICHARD DAVIS
MORGAN EVANS

Stage Manager
Assistant Stage Manager
Chief Projectionist
Assistant Projectionist

Athletic events in Santa Monica High School are given much publicity, both for the hard work that is done and the results that are attained, but there is a certain group of people removed from the public eye by the thick, hanging drapes, who work as hard, if not harder, than our ardent football heroes, but who receive very little credit for their work. This group is made up of fellows who want to do something for their school. They have done much and deserve much credit. Always, in assemblies, during plays, or other public performances, there is, back stage, this gang of willing, hard-working, stage hands.

The purpose of this sketch is to let the rest of the school appreciate those who have, so willingly, given their services to them. The stage crew of this year has, I think, been composed of the best fellows in school, and I wish to thank them for their hearty co-operation.

The projection staff consisting of Richard Davis, chief projectionist; Morgan Evans, assistant projectionist, Phil Neill and Marshall Duffield, associate projectionists, has not accomplished as much during the past year as was originally planned because of the lack of funds necessary to purchase another motion picture machine. The staff has, however, assisted in a small way in the production of skits through the use of the arc spot so as to give a background found only in high-class theatres.

The staff co-operating with the Student Body officers was able to introduce a new feature in assembly, that of flashing the words of school songs on the screen, eliminating the use of books, and making possible better assembly singing.

Many improvements in this field of activity are possible and with the addition of a new machine next year a great future for the group is predicted by this year's staff.

FINE ARTS

THE WHOLE TOWN'S TALKING

And my, the town certainly did talk! Why? Because the seniors presented a tremendous success on the nights of December third and fourth in the form of a play by that name. The farce, written by Anita Loos and John Emerson, was one which caused favorable comment in the local newspapers. The play was well cast and given in a smooth, professional manner which is of course credited to the efficient director, Miss Ellis.

The first act opens revealing the fact that Henry Simmons, a wealthy paint manufacturer, has been secretly taking dancing lessons from a bowery girl, Sadie Bloom. Miss Bloom has accidentally left her hand bag in the taxi Simmons has taken her home in, and Mrs. Simmons receives the bag by mistake. Thus the sarcasm expressed by "Hattie" to "Henry" in the first scene strikes the cord of humor which remains throughout the play. Dad Simmons announces his intention of marrying his daughter "Ethel" to his business partner "Chet Binney". Now Chet is a very dowdy, blundering man of about forty and is considered very undesirable by the feminine sex. At this time Ethel arrives from Chicago with a "Young English Blood," Roger Shields. This effeminate, smooth, man of the world speaks French very affectively and is a great favorite with the ladies. Simmons from the start takes a great dislike to him and gets a great many laughs by burlesquing his actions.

Ethel proceeds to point out Roger's good qualities and announces that she must marry a man of the world. Chet's entrance sends the audience into an uproar of laughter. In the next scene Simmons prepares Chet for the proposal, but it is refused with the excuse that he has "never sowed his wild oats". So Simmons proceeds to make a record-breaking past for Chet by forging the signature of a movie queen, Letty Lythe. The tongues immediately wag and Ethel is greatly thrilled by her man of the world. The engagement is announced.

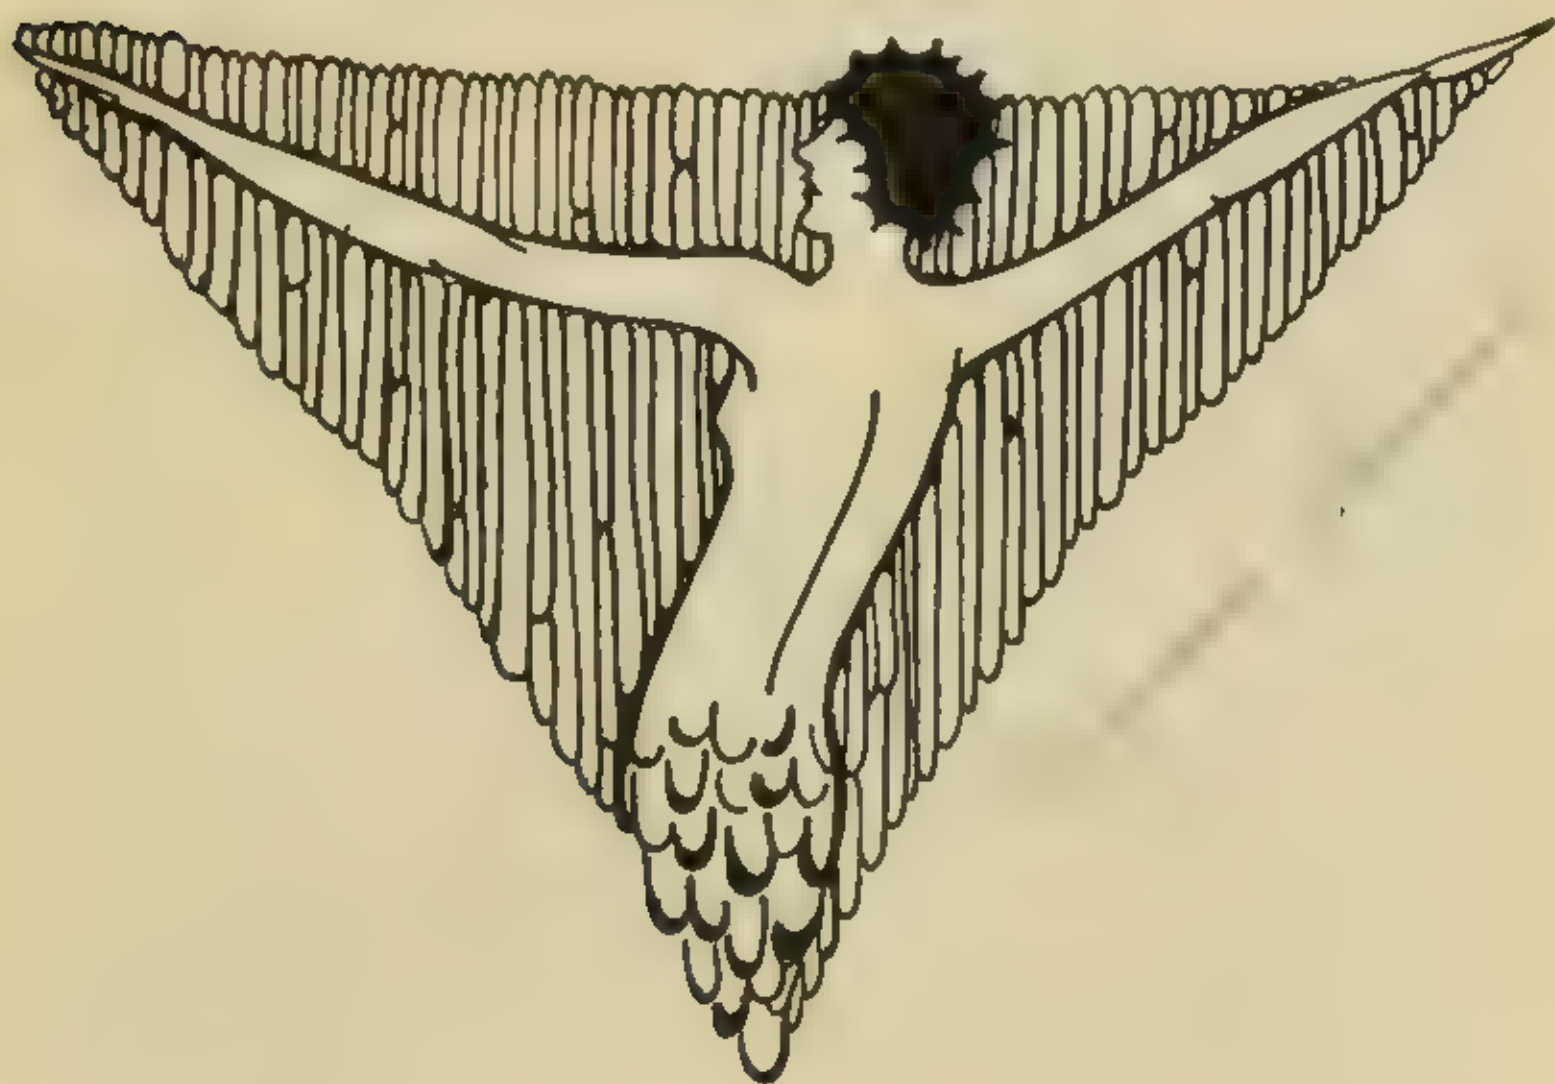

In the second act through a queer coincidence Letty's fiance, Donald Swift, meets Henry and hears of the affair between Chet and Letty. He flies into a rage and goes after Letty for a confession. In the meantime Letty comes to the house with Roger and is very indignant at the affair, but in order to cure Donald of his jealousy, plans to carry out the plot. Hence when she and Donald again come to the house, she makes violent love to Chet in front of the whole cast and proclaims him her true love.

Ethel then breaks her engagement, and Donald promises to kill Chet. Letty realizes that she has carried the joke too far and implores Roger to keep Donald at the hotel until she can get there.⁹ Roger promises to do so, but instead gets Donald even more angry than before and by deceiving Mr. Simmons, manages to get Chet alone. Chet by this time is so bewildered he cannot understand the state of affairs. The play ends in a crashing, banging, fight in the dark. Chet calmly sits up on the chandelier and awaits for the end, that is, until both Roger and Donald are unconscious. He then climbs down and poses as victor, which completely wins Ethel.

The cast was proclaimed perfect. The first two to be mentioned are Ben Batchelor and Kenneth Darby, Ben as Chet Binney and Kenneth as Henry Simmons. Both parts were exceedingly difficult to portray. Ben's character work was realistic and clever. He won his audience from the start and the many laughs he received are evidence of his splendid work. Kenneth as the instigator of the plot did wonders. His acting was very fine. His most commendable qualities were his naturalness and poise. Virginia Webster as Ethel was a vivacious young girl and filled the role of daughter and sweetheart with charm, so it was said. Jean Weldon as Hattie Simmons played her part to perfection, getting each line over with a tremendous bang. Natalie Jenkins as the movie queen fitted into the part perfectly, making it very natural. Her acting was very commendable and her beauty astonishing. Dick Thompson as Donald Swift carried a difficult role and did very well since his portrayal of a jealous bully was realistic. Roger Shields played by Tyler Lee, was clever as the effeminate Frenchman and his work represented much conscientious endeavor and study. Lilla Wilson, portrayed by Bonnie Glendenning and Sally Otis portrayed by Pauline Wagner, were dainty, charming maids whose work added much color and life to the play. They portrayed vivacious, modern girls. The rest were minor roles, but Dorothy Farnsworth as the maid and Dick Davis as the taxi driver carried their roles very well and helped to make the play a decided success. Elsie Leach did especially well as the tough girl and proved she had dramatic ability.

As property mistress, Anna Louise Larson, was "the girl behind the gun". Her dependable qualities helped to give the smoothness which marks a professional performance. The work of Elinor Sharlip as publicity manager and Stanford Bird, as business manager should be mentioned and their earnest endeavor to help showed great results. Miss Hartzig's art class made the beautiful Spanish set which was designed by the clever artist Anne Moore Cross. This set got a large applause both nights. Taken all in all, it was a production that not only the Seniors of '27 may be proud of, but the whole of Santa Monica High School.

The JUNIOR CLASS
 PRESENT

MRS. PATTINSON
 - PRESENT -

MRS. PARTRIDGE PRESENTS

On the nights of March 25 and 26 the Junior Class Play was presented to the public and was received with hearty approval. The play was a story of modern times, and dealt with an ambitious young mother who had mapped out the lives of her two children in accordance with her wishes. The moral was an excellent one and will be remembered by all those who have witnessed it. It was "Children should be allowed to follow their own talents and ambitions."

The story was presented in three acts, each better than the last. They developed the plot in the following manner:

Act I. The curtain rose on a beautiful set representing a fashionable living room in the apartment of Maisie Partridge, New York City. The young son, Philip Partridge, who is attending art school, makes himself a general nuisance to everyone because of his desire for models. Delight Partridge, the young actress, introduces her new-found friend, Sydney Amstead, to her mother, who instantly takes a great dislike to him and proceeds to make him uncomfortable. Stephen Applegate, Maisie's lawyer, is much disturbed over business affairs. Katherine Everett, a friend of the family, is confided in, and she learns that Delight is in love. The act ends in a mad rush to some cheap East Side theatre for rehearsal. Maisie is delighted, while her daughter is very nervous and lacks self-confidence. Sydney is very upset after finding out Delight's vocation and does not hesitate to say so.

Act II. Alas! the inevitable has happened and Delight through the co-operation of Kate has been meeting Sydney away from home, unbeknown to Maisie. An elopement has been planned for three o'clock that afternoon. However, an accident brings Sydney to the house with a friend, Charlie Ludlow, who offers Phil a position in South America. Maisie comes in joyously with a new part for Delight and, though her daughter tries to make her see the way she feels, Maisie will not listen and forces her to accept the role. Sydney leaves the house in a fit of anger determined never to marry.

Act III. The set was a beautiful one and designed as a fashionable hat shop adjoining Maisie's establishment. Kate comes in search for Mrs. Partridge and has a chance to do a clever bit of acting. The arrival of Madam La Fleur is to be the event of the coming day and Maisie and Stephen are arranging business matters. Sydney comes to warn Maisie that he is going to marry her daughter regardless of her attitude. Philip gains her consent to accept the position in South America. Later, Delight comes in with the news that she has just been married. Maisie is of course heartbroken, but her mistake finally occurs to her and she realizes that sooner or later a child must go out from under its mother's wing.

The well-chosen cast was under supervision of the unequalled coach, Miss Grace Ellis, who has never failed in presenting plays of real value of entertainment.

Helen Keating carried the difficult role of Maisie Partridge and did so in a manner which revealed rare ability. Her scenes touched the hearts of many and her poise added great charm to the plot.

Vera Matson as Delight Partridge was a lovable young girl of vivacity and charm. Her winning personality lent individuality to the part.

Fern Buckner as Katherine Everett carried the comedy lead and kept the house in successive bursts of laughter. Her acting equalled that of a professional and her character was perfect.

Bernarr Bates played opposite Maisie as Stephen Applegate. His poise and self-confidence lent the role dignity and reality, and his ability as an actor was prevalent.

Merle Henn played the hero and lead opposite Miss Matson. His sincerity and professional finish were his chief assets. His work was remarkable and received much favorable comment.

Philip Partridge was carried by two different boys, Lawrence Magee the twenty-fifth and Howard Louther the twenty-sixth. Both played the nonchalant, would-be artist very well. Each handled the role from original interpretations and each was entertaining in his own way. Lawrence Magee's talents, namely poise and nonchalance, were especially suited to the part.

Winona Hoch as Ellen was very funny as the Irish maid and her character work was very well done while her ability was recognized by all.

Ernest VanCott had a small bit as Charlie Ludlow, but he lent his usual charm to the role.

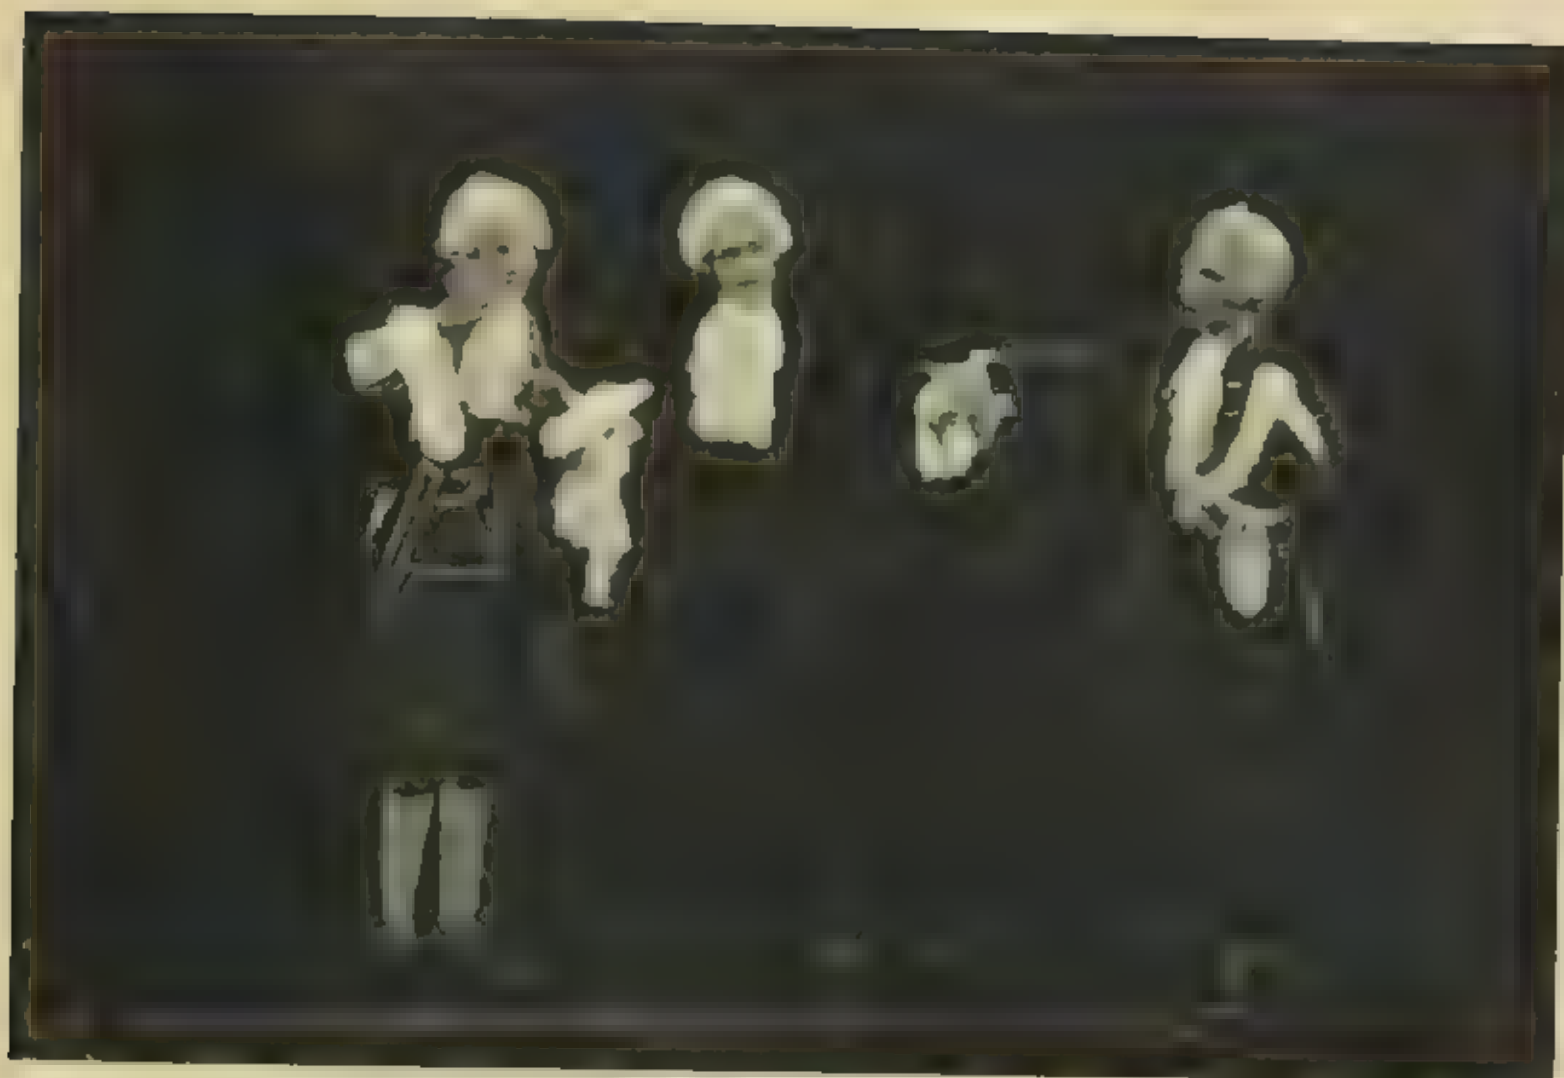

Miss Hamilton, the shop keeper, was played by Beth Stout, and her assistant, Clementine, by Maurice Davis. Both were true to type. Whitley Rutherford and Porter Sinclair were typical janitors and Madam La Fleu was very Frenchie.

Anne Moore Cross and Tyler Lee designed the beautiful sets, which received a loud applause both nights. Their originality was outstanding. Miss Hartzig's color combinations were beautiful. She deserves special mention for her many hours of extra work and the deep interest taken in all the dramatic productions of this year. Her natural genius for color combinations adds a great deal to the finish of a play, which is not often realized by the majority.

The play was a big financial success because of the efficient business manager, Porter Sinclair, and publicity manager, Victor Briggs. These two boys so cleverly managed the business end of the play that they enabled the Junior class to present $100 to the Student Body fund. This is really the first event that brings the class to the front, and they have proved their worthiness of the name of Samohi.

The properties suited perfectly and showed excellent taste. This result was accounted for by the efforts of Mildred Morton and the Junior class President, Whitley Rutherford.

The play was a very difficult undertaking, having but recently been released to amateurs. It was written for the noted Blanche Bates, who starred many years in New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles as Mrs. Partridge. Miss Ellis should be highly commended upon the selection and production of such a play. The professional finish, for which she is noted, was not lacking. However, the Juniors realized that the undertaking was not a small one, and their earnest endeavor to perfect the production did much to add that valuable quality of sincerity necessary to make a success of any undertaking. Mrs. Partridge Presents was a supreme success and established a firm foundation for the progress of the class of '28.

THE CRITIC

"The Critic," by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, was presented by the graduating class of '26 last June. This was a classical farce with a very delicate humorous strain. It was given in eighteenth century style and was a take-off on the stage of one hundred and fifty years ago.

The local papers say of this presentation: "Sheridan's comedy, 'The Critic,' as played by the senior class of the Santa Monica High School last evening, gave the common pursuit of wemankind—redacing—some hard going, if there is anything in the adage: 'laugh and grow fat.' By its terms Santa Monica must be several tons heavier today than yesterday."

I am sure none of us can forget that clever actor, John McIntire, who is now steadily climbing the ladder of success. He carried the leading role of Mr. Puff excellently and his acting set a high standard for Samohi.

Adolph Peschelt as Mr. Dangle also proved himself a very fine actor. His clever interpretations reflected much thought and time.

Dainty and beautiful was Virginia Glendenning as the leading lady, Tilburnia.

Gene West as the comedian, confidant, was a great favorite of the audience. Her clever, witty lines were given full value and she filled the house time and again with hearty laughter.

Mart Bushnell as Wiskerandos was the male comedian and those who remember Mart know the wonderful actor that he is.

Janet Strickland as Mrs. Dangle did an admirable piece of work. Don Cluff as Mr. Sneer showed his remarkable ability. He is another young man whom Samohi may be proud of.

The rest of the cast was carried by the largest group of excellent ability ever assembled.

As the play was directed by our unsurpassable coach, Grace Ellis, it was deemed a great success by all who saw it.

WHY IS AN ART DEPARTMENT?

Too many people still think of an art department as a place where students learn to draw and paint—an isolated, detached part of the school occupied by a few unusually talented individuals, quite unrelated to the school as a whole. Those of us who work and live in the department know that view to be absurd and untrue.

Art is life itself, lived richly and abundantly. The art taste of a community will be a reflection of the standards established in school. Everywhere art yields dependable profits to the investor, whether in the business world through manufactured products or their advertising, in the home through selection and arrangement of furniture and draperies, in the community through the beauty of public buildings and parks, or to the individual in the personal choice of dress and accessories.

The department contacts with the school are many.

The class in stage design creates and executes the sets for school plays. In this type of design the work of Anne Moore Cross and Tyler Lee is notable. Accessories and properties for productions including tapestries, screens, draperies and iron grills are all handled by this capable group under the direction of Miss Hartzig.

During the year exhibitions of student work have been sent to the Junior High schools and to the Los Angeles District Fisteddfod. In the later exhibit six of the twelve drawings shown received the Roger Noble Burnham medal of award. Lucille Picco and Martha Ellen Shelton received first place medals in gold. Cornelia Maule, Stanley Nelson, Florence Whitehead and Mildred Young received silver medals.

The Art Club makes possible through financing the Christmas card sale. Stunning, unusual cards of distinct charm and originality were made by the students in design and illustration. These were hand-colored by all classes and sold to the students in school. This year many fascinating papers were used, Hang Chow, a rough straw-flecked paper from China; Kuro, one made of the pulp and fibre of the redwood; Haikwan, one of peanut shells; all touched with the romance, the adventure, the color of the Orient, lent themselves as backgrounds to the designs of Lucille Picco, Keith Thomas, Doris Coontz, Florence Whitehead, Tyler Lee, Cornelia Maule and Stanley Nelson.

One class has designed a mural for the A. S. B. room illustrating early Spanish-

American California. This is a group problem, every member of the class contributing to the whole, and all contributing to the school. Another class is working upon designs for a mural for the English department.

The Nautilus in its illustration from cover design to end sheets is an expression of the department. Under the inspiration of Mrs. Roberts the art staff developed the theme, the sea—its power, the power of education, the power of character; its strength—endurance, application, concentration, attitudes towards life in school that mean finer citizens tomorrow, its endless rhythm—life itself, eternal, splendid, storms and calm, a glorious adventure to those with a knowledge of true values. The illustrating and the hand-coloring of twenty-four hundred divisional pages for the de luxe edition, as well as one thousand tip-ons for the regular edition, have been done by students in the art department.

And these are some of the reasons why we believe that an art department is a vital part in the democracy of a high school.

MUSIC

The Music Department includes classes of Piano, Voice, Harmony, Music Appreciation, Sight Singing, and the Orchestra.

The Piano Department, under the direction of Miss Irene Cronkhite, has functioned in many ways during the year. Various students from this department appeared on the following programs given by the Music Club: The first social meeting, "Music of the British Isles;" the "Beethoven Centennial;" "Music of Spain and Italy." Carl Fardelius was given the honor of appearing as a soloist for the mid-term graduation in February.

At a pupils' recital, given in January, the following took part: Meredith Conley, Mildred Allen, Jean Taft, Elsie Leach, Marie Munkers, Elvirs Micheli, Mary O'Connor, Carolyn Cannon, Elizabeth Bordon, Wathca S.ms, Marie Hall, Libby Steingart, Zelda Gottlieb, Eleanor Story, Gwendolyn Stewart, Lucie Allen, Robert Stringer, Carl Fardelius.

Among those who showed unusual talent were Mildred Allen, Mary O'Connor, and Robert Stringer. An interesting feature of this program were the two-piano, eight-hand numbers, which showed the class ensemble work.

The voice classes have contributed to the Library Club, the Home Economics Club, Red Cross programs at the Soldiers' Home, and gave a voice demonstration before a special group of music teachers.

This department, under the direction of Miss Lollie Anderson, consists of the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club and all of the voice classes. All have functioned vitally in the life of Samohi.

The Girls' Glee Club has contributed to several of the High School Music Club programs, the Honor Scholarship Social meeting and Reception, numerous P.T.A. meetings, including a special demonstration of class teaching of voice given before the District P. T. A. Convention, and many other outside club and school activities to include business and professional clubs, Masonic program, Student Body assemblies, mid-year and June graduations, and a concert given during Music Week sponsored by the Bay Cities Civic Music Association.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club sang for Boys' League and other assemblies, the concert given during Music Week, the concert given before the Masons during Education Week, and at the mid-year and June graduations.

The Harmony Department, under the instruction of Miss Doris Moon, offers two years of Harmony and one semester of Keyboard Harmony, the latter a new course which was added this year. Miss Moon gave two class demonstrations during the last semester. The first was a Keyboard Harmony demonstration given before the Los Angeles Music Teachers' Association and the second was a Harmony demonstration given for the Santa Monica Parent-Teachers' Association. The Second Annual Program of Original Compositions was given in April. The students participating in this program included Robert Stringer, Roy Ringwald, Dorothy Arthur, Fern Buckner, Elizabeth Borden, and Nado Shutt.

This concert was the most comprehensive in scope of any program of original compositions yet given by this department. Numbers written for piano included: "Witches' Dance," from a Childrens' Suite by Elizabeth Borden; a brilliant "Scherzo" by Dorothy Arthur; and three numbers written by Robert Stringer, a "Valse," an "Impromptu" and a two-piano composition called "Peasant Dance." Two compositions attractively written for Violin, one entitled "A l'Improviste," the other a Viennese Waltz, were presented by Fern Buckner. Two Seniors of '27 participated in this program Nado Shutt and Roy Ringwald. The latter wrote a most interesting String Quartet of which two movements were played. Nado Shutt, the Salutatorian of his class, showed his versatility in his two numbers, one a Scherzo for Flute and the other an Etude for Piano and Violin.

THE PIPE ORGAN

In the history of Samohi there has been no greater undertaking than the erection of the Pipe Organ. Marquette Richard, A. S. B. President of the year 1925-26, deserves much credit in the working out of this project. In addition, the student bodies of both that year and the one following have contributed a large sum to the Organ Fund. After much endeavoring, which included a paper drive and many contributions, the Organ, constructed by the Artcraft Organ Company, was installed and formally presented to the High School on April 20, 1927, the program at which occasion was as follows:

Invocation: Rev. Eugene F. Gates.

Presentation of Organ: Mr. C. E. Haldeman, president of Artcraft Organ Company.

Acceptance: Virgil Cazal, president of the Associated Student Body.

Responses: Mr. Frederick F. Martin, superintendent of city schools.

Mr. George Hart, president of the Board of Education.

Organ Recital: Dr. Edwin P. Delevanti, Organist.

In addition to the many contributions and efforts to pay expenses for the Organ, an organ recital was given on May 19, 1927, sponsored by the Artcraft Organ Company, at which time the organ was formally presented to the public. At this concert the price of admission was ten dollars. The program included an organ number by Rosalie Grandjean, a former high school student, a short organ recital by Dr. C. Albert Tufts of Los Angeles, and the High School Orchestra with Roy Ringwald at the organ played Orpheus in Hades Overture.

The organ has contributed and will contribute in the future a vast amount to the music and its interpretation in the school.

IN APPRECIATION

The Student Body is grateful that the splendid acquisition of the pipe organ has been accomplished during this period of school life. In addition to the vision of Marquette Richard in originating the idea of a pipe organ for the Santa Monica High School and his splendid enthusiasm and untiring efforts in creating a Pipe Organ Fund and bringing about a spirit of co-operation on the part of the Student Body, High School Faculty, Board of Education, citizens of Santa Monica, and the Artcraft Organ Company, much credit and praise also go to the Student Body of this year. This group, under its able president, Virgil Cazal, has heartily co-operated and finally made possible the successful conclusion of the installation of this beautiful Artcraft pipe organ.

DEBATE

ELIZABETH HENNINGER
ESTHER WILBERG

MARGARET BALLOUGH

FRANK INDOVINA
HELEN LORBEER

The outstanding feature of this year's debate work was the fact that a greater number of students participated than ever before in Santa Monica High School. Thirty students have actively engaged in debate, not counting those who participated in debates held in the junior speech classes. While the usual interest in oratorical contests was maintained, the inter-class debates, noticeably the three between the sophomores and juniors, attracted unprecedented attention and a large number of participants.

In Southern California Debate League we took the lead at the first of the season and held it throughout the entire debate schedule. After the three rounds we met Alhambra, the nearest competitor, in the final championship debate. As this book goes to press, the team is working tirelessly under the able direction of the coach, Miss Olive C. Morris, to win the coveted title for Samohi.

The plans and arrangements for debate and oratorical contests were in charge of the Debate Commissioner, Helen Lorbeer, who is to be given a great deal of credit for her wonderful work of the past year.

A new office, that of assistant to the commissioner, was created. During the first part of the year Ernest VanCott filled this position with willing and commendable service. He found it necessary, however, to resign his position at the beginning of the second semester. A student was then chosen who had been actively engaged in debating, who had shown himself an able leader, and who was willing to do the work at hand, and do it well. Such an assistant was Richard Swearingen. His sudden death was a shock and tragedy to all his fellow debaters. Too much cannot be said of Richard's splendid service to the school.

We believe that forensic activities, including debate and oratory, will soon be recognized among the students, as they have long been recognized among the educators, as great factors in the developing of the ability of expression; and we also believe that, in the not too far distant future, a silver cup in the trophy case will testify to the debate prowess of the students of the Santa Monica High School.

GIRLS' LEAGUE VS. BOYS' LEAGUE

The girls won the annual Girls' League-Boys' League debate, held March 17, by the score of 10 to 4. The debate was a simultaneous one between the two Boys' League teams composed of Richard Swearingen, Ernest Stanton, Oscar Smith, Dick Unger, Everett Hartung, and Alton Parsons; and the Girls' League representatives: Helen Lorbeer, Elizabeth Henninger, Catherine Coles, Mildred Carr, Blanche Bendsen, and Mary Johnston.

The subject was, "Resolved, that the Allied War Debt should be cancelled."

JUNIORS VS. SOPHOMORES

The first debate of the year was that held by the Junior and Sophomore classes October 27, 1926. The plucky little Sophomores emerged victorious by the score of 9-5, thereby winning the right to meet the mighty Seniors.

The two Sophomore teams were composed of Mildred Carr, Ernest Arbuckle, Irene Bronnais, and Helen Ackerman. The Junior teams were composed of Richard Swearingen, Ernest Stanton, Irene Hillyer, and Terence Aston.

The question was, "Resolved, that the Philippines should be granted their immediate independence."

SANTA MONICA VS. U. S. C. HIGH

In the first league debate of the season, November 19, 1926, Santa Monica defeated the University of Southern California High School by the score of 7-0. The affirmative side of the question was upheld by the Santa Monica team composed of Elizabeth Henninger and Margaret Ballough, who both did very brilliant work. It was evident from the first that the Santa Monica team, under the able coaching of Miss Morris, was far superior to the U. S. C. High representatives.

The subject was, "Resolved, that the City Manager form of government is preferable to the Commission or Mayor Council form of government for municipalities," a subject which, in itself, was very difficult.

The judges were Professor Charles Marsh, of S. B. U. C.; J. Challen Smith, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Sawtelle; and Mr. Bowles, Teacher of Public Speaking at Hollywood High School.

SOPHOMORES VS. SENIORS

On December 8, 1926, the Seniors triumphed over the Sophomores by a score of 12-1. The subject was, "Resolved, that California should be divided into two separate states." The debate was a simultaneous one. The Sophomore teams were composed of Mildred Carr, Sylvia Harper, Irene Bronnais, and Ernest Arbuckle, while the Seniors were represented by Helen Lorbeer, Dick Unger, Alex Horwitz, and John Nolan.

S. M. H. S. VS. INGLEWOOD

The second league debate, held at Inglewood, February 11, 1927, was marked by brilliant work on the part of Elizabeth Henninger and Margaret Balough.

Margaret's work was all the more remarkable upon consideration of the fact that she was given only two weeks' notice, and within that time she prepared her speech.

The Santa Monica representatives won by the score of 7-0. This makes the second unanimous victory and puts Samohi well in the lead of the conference, paving the way for a probable Southern California Championship.

The question was, "Resolved, that a high school diploma should be sufficient requirement for entrance to the State University." Santa Monica upheld the negative side of the question.

SANTA MONICA VS. JEFFERSON

In the third league debate of the season, Esther Wilberg and Frank Indovina representing Santa Monica, defeated the Jefferson High squad by the score of 5-2. This victory gave Santa Monica a total of 19 points for the season, and also the highest rating of any school in the South.

The subject was, "Resolved, that Democracy, as exemplified in the United States, is a failure." Santa Monica upheld the affirmative side of the question.

In this debate both Frank and Esther showed exceptional ability, and should both prove very valuable as prospective championship material.

ORATORY

THE TIMES ORATORICAL CONTEST

In the local contest Virgil Cazel was the winner, with Elizabeth Henninger and Mildred Carr tied for second. In the district finals with Venice, Elizabeth Henninger won, with Virgil Cazel second. The semi-finals were held at Alhambra and here Elizabeth was defeated, a boy from San Pedro taking first place.

GIRLS' LEAGUE ORATORICAL CONTEST

The Girls' League Oratorical Contest, held April 21, was won by Mildred Carr, junior, from Margaret Balough and Helen Lorbeer, seniors. The subject was, "Opportunities for the Girl of Today."

BOYS' LEAGUE ORATORICAL CONTEST

The subject chosen for the Boys' League Oratorical Contest, held April 28, was, "The Relation of Dependability to Success." Bernarr Bates took first honors from Oscar Smith. Both boys were juniors.

DECEMBER 10—

Venice varsity were guests of honor
Every ancient grudge did we anchor,
Now we clasped hands as friends
In true pacts of peace we made amends
Chap Ryan's Harmony Hounds
Ensnared the drums all out of bounds.

Even the sophomores were there
Trying to copy the seniors debonair.

Since Daggs, Mishler, and Pea Neill were Among those present, we will aver
Most diverting was the revel
Opined the best to compel
Happy thoughts of football victory
In the coming season of rivalry.

First affair for the varsity boys
Our hopes, our prides, and our pig-skin joys.
Old Samohi, praises strong to her,
To Berg, to Daggs, and Mishler.
Bill Spaulding, coach at U. C. L. A.,
Attracted all by his tricks of play,
Laughs and cheers his pranks received
Line-ups which had ritual teams deceived.

Fun and jollity ran high
Each boy had a laugh in each eye
As food from Mrs. Hazzard's cuisine
Served by a chic Girls' League queen
Tempted their palates, as well was it seen!

DECEMBER 10—

Soothing strains of music
Every tune euphonic
Nothin' but romance
It's "on with the dance!"
On with each step and slide,
Revolve, dip, twist, and glide.

Boys and girls and faculty—

Fern and potted palm
Rival each in charm
Our class, when doing, does well.
Laurels 'pon our brows should dwell
In dignity? Well, no—
Cause we're rarin' to go!

JANUARY 14—

See the merry senior belles—
Each a dazzling glance compels
None less than a knockout;
In senior men we have no doubt!
On the music plays,
Rests, then again it brays.

A fairyland of fun!

Presenting Randolph's "Kids' Revue,"
A bowery pair, and lil' Boy Blue,
Red Riding Hood, tossing to you.
Time at last, eleven p. m.
You know old Tally's, and then—ahem!

FEBRUARY 11—

Girls, all shapes and sizes, thin and fat,
In mirth and hunger at the banquet sat.
Rippling talk, with songs and toasts
Lorbeer, Doeg, Genter, each one boasts
Spicy wit and verse.

Lined with bright faces, every table
Each one with a month for its label.
All those whose birthdays came in June
Gained glory, for they won the prize.
Undoubtedly,
Everyone else heaved mournful sighs!

Fair Boswell presided with grace,
Eager and joyful was each face
As song after song took its place
Sung with rollicking fun.
Till, thru at last, the feast was done.

MARCH 11—

Bill McEwan was host this year,
On St. Patrick's each boy was here
Yelling welcome to the rest,
Singing and joking at his best.

Loud and long the cheers rang out,
Each looked with a joyful shout
At the food prepared by Mrs. Hazzard.
Gay and glad some they ate,
Unique were the tidbits of each plate,
Every one surpassed himself quite well.

Speaker John Byers, one of the best,
Pleased his hearers with many a jest,
Repeated applause assured his success
Evoked by the talk, "Ideals in Business."
And after the spread was over
Dese heah boys wah fat in clovah!

APRIL 8—

Serpentine march starts off the fun
Of merry-makers, and everyone
Pitches in with a bump, for a
Hop! skip! and jump!

Seven Melody men, and C. Daggs
Kept the dance on with fox-trots and rags.
In fact, the Sophs were great,
Putting on such a frolicsome fete.

JUNE 3—

Juniors, a more perfect dance
Under the spangled stars' expanse
Ne'er before has had a chance.
Inside the gym we frolicked for a while
Outside the gym we frolicked erstwhile
Rhythm's lyric charms did us beguile.

Prismatic flowers, prismatic lights,
Rainbow colours,—all delights
Our merry crowd in a
Midsummer madness night of nights.

JUNE 21—

Campus of beautiful Samohi
Langorous under the warm blue sky,
A place in our hearts you've entwined.
Sage seniors, who left this all behind,
Sigh not, but remember our class day.

Day of festivity, fellowship, fun,
A prophesy of freedom begun
Yet not to our debit quite won!

Dearest Margaret:

SPORTS

TRIBUTE TO RICHARD SWEARINGEN WHO HAS CARRIED ON

By VIRGIL W. CAZEL

The Sun is young and glad and gold.
A fair-haired youth who plays at dawn,
This youth is wise (and yet not old)
With wisdom gleaned from Suns long gone.
At dusk the sun is proud and red;
By steeds of fire his coach is drawn,
And though he sinks he is not dead;
At dawn he bids us "Carry on!"

The son was young with heart of gold,
A clear-eyed youth who lived at dawn,
This son was wise, for it is told
From love of men his joy was drawn!
This son was stronger far than Death
His strength was built on more than brawn
He loved all life. How sweet each breath
That gave him might to carry on!

The son was loved; 'tis weak to grieve
For him whom God did love so well.
I think the boy would say, "Believe!
For more than this I may not tell."
This son who went a half-blown flower,
He did not languish, pale and wan,
But sped in beauty when that power
Did summon him to "Carry on!"

The sun has gone, and yet we feel him here,
This son who was and is of us a part.
He lived among us in these halls so dear
He lived among us—lived in every heart!
And shall we say, "This lad has earned his rest;
God grant him peace where he has early gone"?
Or shall we cry, "He lives, and lives twice blessed,
Because he lived to bid us 'Carry on!' "

The son was strong; he saw so much to do
This son who gave his all for Samohi.
We, humbled with his passing, see it, too,
And pledge ourselves to him, nor question, "Why?"
This son shall lead these sons to fight anew,
To honor him with faith and brain and brawn,
To grave upon our hearts in gold and blue
That high resolve of his—"to carry on!"

FOOTBALL

VARSITY FOOTBALL SQUAD

My first year as coach of varsity football at Samohi has been one of great pleasure to me. Never have I had finer response, enthusiasm, and support from any football squad. I would call the season a very successful one in every sense of the word. I feel that our team was at least the equal of any in the Bay League, and that means Southern California. For your fine response, enthusiasm, and loyalty and adherence to training rules, I want to thank every member of the squad.

COACH BERG.

HUNTINGTON PARK 3, vs. SANTA MONICA 3

The first league game of the 1926 football season was played at Huntington Park and resulted in a 3-3 tie. The Spartans were slightly favored to win and showed up better in the first half, but Santa Monica completely outplayed their opponents in the last two periods.

Huntington Park scored a field goal in the first half and the Sea Lions duplicated the feat in the last quarter. S. M. H. S. failed to score in four down when on their opponent's five-yard line.

VENICE 0, vs. SANTA MONICA 3

Santa Monica revenged the defeat by Venice last year in this game. It was played on the home field with a record attendance. Although the score indicated a close game, Venice was never within scoring distance, while the Sea Lions were in their rival's territory most of the game. The three points were made by a well-kicked field goal.

COMPTON 0, vs. SANTA MONICA 0

This game was the second and last tie game for the Sea Lions. Neither team was able to score during the game, the ball being carried back and forth in the absence of breaks. Santa Monica appeared to be the strongest of the two teams.

SAN PEDRO 0, vs. SANTA MONICA 24

Santa Monica tramped over the San Pedro Pirates, defeating them 20-0. The Sea Lions piled up the 24 points while the Pirates were unsuccessful in their repeated efforts to score on a passing attack. Coach Berg played his reserves after the third quarter.

INGLEWOOD 3, vs. SANTA MONICA 0

The Santa Monica varsity suffered its only defeat of the season when Inglewood scored on a place kick, the final score being 3-0.

Santa Monica fought hard and played a good game, but the breaks and other factors of the game were against them.

This defeat set Santa Monica back in the race for the Bay League championship, but there was still a possibility of winning the title.

REDONDO 0, vs. SANTA MONICA 34

Stinging smartly from their chance to obtain the championship through the defeat by Inglewood, Santa Monica overwhelmed Redondo by a score of 34-0. The Redondo team was completely outplayed in every branch of the game.

WILSON 0, vs. SANTA MONICA 10

The last game of the 1926 football season was played with Woodrow Wilson at Santa Monica. The game was well played and provided many thrills for the spectators. The score was the result of an 80yard run for a touchdown and a perfect drop kick from the 30-yard line.

FRNIE WAGNER

COACH MAX BERG

SHORTY KUHN

My first year as coach of varsity football at Samohi has been one of great pleasure to me. Never have I had finer response, enthusiasm, and support from any football squad. I would call the season a very successful one in every sense of the word. I feel that our team was at least the equal of any in the Bay League, and that means Southern California. For your fine response, enthusiasm, and loyalty and adherence to training rules, I want to thank every member of the squad.

—COACH BERG.

KENNIE SPEIRS

KEITH THOMAS

LES PETTETT

MAX BERG, Coach. Mr. Berg has been here but one season, has done remarkably well. He has gained a well-earned popularity that is unusual for one who has been here for so short a time. He has proved himself to be one of those men, who, upon making a statement, strive to live up to it. He radiates a fire and spirit to win that surges through his teams and bring golden results. We may well consider ourselves fortunate to have him within our portals and may look forward with him to more prosperous years.

—THE EDITOR.

CAPTAIN ERNIE WAGNER, Center. The ideal type of a football leader. One who inspired his men and always had the confidence and respect of the team. The outstanding defensive center in high school circles.

RALPH KUHN, Halfback. A very remarkable player, never having played football until part of the season was well under way, developed into one of the first backs in the league. A quick starter, very fast, having tremendous driving power. Too bad he wasn't discovered sooner.

KENNETH SPEIRS, End. The fastest man and one of the hardest fighters on the team. Especially effective on defensive although the lightest man on the team.

KEITH THOMAS, Back. Thomas, after a rather slow start, came into his own in the Long Beach game, playing a game that will long be remembered. His kicking was also fine, the best in the league.

LESLIE PETTETT, Fullback. A fine line-plunger and a tower of strength on the defensive. Great fighting spirit, always giving all he had.

PHIL NEILL, End. After a slow start, Phil developed into the best receiver of passes in the Bay League. A good, heady player, sizing up plays well.

MARSHALL DUFFIELD, Quarterback. A fine open field runner, a good, consistent drop kicker and punter, Marsh was undoubtedly the most valuable backfield man in the Bay League.

GEORGE GUTHRIE, Guard. Always playing a hard, strong game, Guthrie was one of the mainstays of an unusually strong line.

CARL FOSSETT, Guard. Unfortunately Carl was on the injured list during several important games. A fine, reliable guard, hard working and always full of fight.

FRED WHITLEY, Tackle. Capable of being the best high school tackle in California, but had the unfortunate characteristic of playing his best only when angry. Played some very fine football last fall.

LLOYD HURST, Halfback. Playing the outside back, Lloyd's chief job was to clear the way for the other backs, which he did well. Always a hard, conscientious worker.

COACH MAX BERG.

MARSH DUFFIELD

GEORGE GUTHRIE

I cannot close without a word of appreciation to the other members of the squad who made it possible for the team to go through a highly successful season. Many of you will make your letter next year, and I will be happy with you. Your efforts were well worth while.

CLASS C FOOTBALL

The lightweight football team, under the guidance of Coach Charles Daggs, showed unusual spirit this season. Regardless of the fact that the team dropped six out of seven games, the determined youngsters took their vicious revenge upon the much-touted Inglewood lightweights by walloping them 21 to 0 in a game that was all Santa Monica's. Coach Daggs had nearly all new material to work with and unfortunately he will have the same trouble next year, although many of the fighting midgets will enter the B Class next season. From them we expect much. Those receiving letters in the lightweight squad are: Wonder, English, Plumer, Finn, Zabriskie, Austin, Smith, Card, Enrico, Briscoe, Kirkham, Gillette, Hopkins and Wallace.

The fighting midgets had a glorious year. Their only "bad break" was in tying their first two games. This cost them the Southern California Championship, in that Huntington Park, who won that title, led Samohi flyweights by only one half fane. The blue and gold midgets displayed more fight than either of the larger teams.

The attendance at these small, peppy games was large and some of the people were heard to remark that they enjoyed watching these youngsters play football more than watching most college games they had seen. Most of last fall's midgets will be seen in action next season under the care of Coach Daggs, who hopes with us, to win the cup we lost this year. Lettermen of this class are: Plumer,, Shoucois, Weber, Osborne, Fitzsimmons, Wright, Gary, Hinderer, Gillis, Whitehead and Hedgecock.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Varsity Basketball Squad

The Bay League basketball season opened January 21. The Municipal Auditorium was the scene of most of the varsity and lightweight games. Basketball was well supported throughout the season, and, although Santa Monica did not win the Bay League championship, the squads benefited greatly from the training they received during the season.

The varsity was composed of Captain Homer Sale, Anthony Jurich, Marshall Duffield, Lloyd Hurst, Keith Thomas, Clarence Quinn, Ralph Tucker, and Francis Baird. Four of the varsity games were lost by a one-point margin. This was very disheartening to the squad and Coach Mishler, but the squads kept up their fighting spirit throughout the season.

The lightweights placed third in the Bay League. The team was coached by Floyd Mishler and was composed of Captain Gordon, Finn, Van Every, Smith, Bentley, Ramey, Soest, and Indovina.

The class C and D teams were coached by Max Berg, and like the varsity and lightweight teams, had a regular adverse season. The class C team included Osborne, Rose, Engbertson, Irwin and Athey. The class D team was made up of Thomas, Arbuckle, De Roos, Allen, and Miller.

TRACK

Varsity Track Squad

The Samohi track team, through the efforts of Coach Charles Daggs, was favored by a number of dual practice meets before the Bay League tit this year. The squad won five of the seven practice meets.

Santa Monica was considered one of the foremost contenders for the Bay League title this year. In the qualifying heats Santa Monica qualified fifteen athletes, the highest number of any school contesting, however, Huntington Park won the meet with 45½ points. Santa Monica tied for second with San Pedro, each having 24 3-8 points.

Nathaniel Rucker, the greatest sprinter ever produced in the Bay League, unofficially broke the Bay League records in the 100 and 200-yard dash. His time was 9 4-5 and 21 2-5, respectively.

The Santa Monica trackmen who placed in the Bay League meet were: Austin, N. Rucker, J. Rucker, Evans, Tucker, Guerra, and Emberg.

Of the men entered in the Southern California meet Nathaniel Rucker placed third in the 100 and fifth in the 220-yard dash, to make the only points for Santa Monica. He was the only representative from Samohi in the State meet at Modest. In this meet he placed fifth in the 100-yard dash.

Those of the track squad who made letters are: Morgan Evans, N. Rucker, J. Rucker, Ralph Tacker, Fred Whitely, Marshall Daffield, Alfonso Guerra, James Crum, Pablo Guerra, Spencer Austin, Truman Emberg and Lorin Finn.

SAMOHİ GOLF TEAM

Golf is fast becoming a popular sport in the high schools, more so in other schools than in Santa Monica, but much more local interest was shown this year than in previous years.

The Samohi Golf team placed third in its league. The matches were played at the Brentwood Country Club and at the courses used by the other members of the league. The schools that composed the league were: Los Angeles, Hollywood, Manual Arts, Polytechnic and Santa Monica. Santa Monica won its matches against Poly and Manual Arts, but dropped the other two to Hollywood and Los Angeles.

The scores were:

Santa Monica	5	Poly	0
Santa Monica	3 1-3	Manual Arts	1½
Santa Monica	1½	Hollywood	3½
Santa Monica	0	Los Angeles	5

Captain Charles Rutan played first man on the team, Eddie Childs second, Bill Mason third, Charles Rathburn fourth, and Byron Palmer fifth. Bill Mason and Byron Palmer will be graduated, leaving Charles Rutan, Eddie Childs and Charles Rathburn for next year's team.

TENNIS

BAY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Santa Monica has always been outstanding in tennis. Two great Santa Monica tennis players have been produced in John Doeg and Lionel Ogden, who are ranked among the first ten men players of the United States. This year, the tennis team has again been very successful, placing first in the Bay League. The team was composed of Captain Albert Blatz, Jack Hickman, Jack Wright, Vance Arganbright, Glenn Myers and Louis Trau.

They played in the following places:

First singles—Captain Blatz.

Second singles—Jack Hickman.

First doubles—Jack Wright and Vance Arganbright.

Second doubles—Glenn Myers and Louis Trau.

The scores of League matches were as follows:

Santa Monica 9, Venice 0; Santa Monica 4, Huntington Park 5; Santa Monica 9, Woodrow Wilson 0; Santa Monica 9, Redondo 0, Santa Monica 6, San Pedro 3, Santa Monica 9, Inglewood 0; Santa Monica 9, Compton 0.

Billy Doeg, a member of the team until he underwent an operation, will be back next year and much can be expected of him.

BASEBALL

Varsity Baseball Squad

APRIL 22. The Bay League season opened with Santa Monica winning the first game from Huntington Park, 11 to 1. McDonald was in the box the entire game and struck out fifteen of the Huntington Park batters. Samohi showed a great deal of power, and from this game on the Bay League championship was their determined goal.

APRIL 28. Santa Monica met her old rival, Venice, and completely swamped the Gondoliers, 20 to 3. Three Venetian pitchers were whanged out of the box by Samohi. Hank McDonald and Pina pitched a fine game.

MAY 6. The game with Woodrow Wilson was a more interesting contest, the score being 5 to 3, in favor of Santa Monica.

MAY 13. Santa Monica won from Redondo, 12 to 2. This game was another easy victory for the strong Santa Monica nine. Albert Pina pitched a very steady game and struck out fifteen batters.

MAY 20 AND 24. Santa Monica was forced to beat Inglewood twice. The first game, which Santa Monica won 4 to 3, was protested and had to be played over. In the second game Santa Monica won more decisively, 6 to 0. McDonald pitched both of these games.

MAY 27. Santa Monica defeated San Pedro, 7 to 0. The winning of this game made Santa Monica the Bay League Champions. This was the first Baseball Championship that Santa Monica has won for seven years.

MAY 28. Santa Monica lost to Alhambra, 2 to 1, in the Southern California playoffs. This game put Santa Monica out of the Southern California Championship race. It was a hard-fought battle and afforded many thrills. Samohi led with one run until the ninth, when the Moors came through with a run that never should have scored. The game went ten innings and was one of the best high school ball games ever played, according to many veterans who were present.

MAY 31. Santa Monica played Compton to finish the league and defeated its opponents, 15 to 3.

Santa Monica had a very successful season. The team, which displayed much fight and alertness, did not lose one of the league games. This year's success is the result of seven years striving to build up material for another championship team since this is the first year we have won it since 1920. With Captain Quinn, Jurich, McDonald, Duran, and Athey back to form a nucleus for next season's baseball team, we have excellent reasons for hoping for the Southern California Championship, which we lost this year, only after a terrific struggle, to Alhambra.

Much praise is due Coach Max Berg for his time and efforts given the team to produce such fine results. The student body, too, deserves credit for their winning spirit and support. Now that this season is done we can not but look forward to a more successful one next year. The members of the squad who received letters are: Captain Quinn, Thomas, Duffield, Jurich, Sederholm, Pina, Hurst, McDonald, Duran and Athey.

BAY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

SOCCKER

GIRLS' SOCCER TEAM

Silence prevailed! Score 0 to 0! The ball at the opponent's goal! Hurrah! The whistle sounded its shrill note! Score 1 to 0! One says these things are read about, but never happen. However, this really happened. Alas! The Juniors won the championship from the Seniors.

Soccer is one of the favorite games in which the girls of S. M. H. S. participate. This statement is proved by the number of girls who responded during the season, which began in November and continued until February. Some consider soccer a game too strenuous to be played by girls. These persons probably do not know that a physical examination is required of each girl, and those who are not able to pass this examination are eliminated from soccer. There are few of these girls who come out for soccer, the most exciting, thrilling, and interesting of the games played by girls. Soccer is the only game in which a large number are taken care of at the same time.

This year's soccer season was satisfactory in all respects. The Juniors won the inter-class competition, while the Seniors and Sophomores showed a fine class spirit in all the games.

The Honorary Team was composed of the most capable players of all classes and consisted of: Forwards: Wathia Sims, Louise Goldsmith, Helen Lorbeer, Arlene Bertholf, Leah Neldon. Full-backs: Athelia Neldon, Ruth Hicker, Dorothy Godkin. Half-backs: Esther Wilberg, Arlene McBride, Charlotte Ramsey. Goal keeper: Margaret Steinman.

Credit should be given to the two coaches, Miss Bess Davis and Miss Martha Hellner.

GIRLS' SWIMMING

GIRLS' SWIMMING TEAM

Splash! Hot dog! isn't the water keen? Splash! That's what you say when you're on a swimming team.

The girls of the sophomore, junior and senior swimming teams had a decidedly fine time this year. In our interclass meet, the seniors won, sophs were second, and juniors third.

The high point girls were: Gloria Finch, Helen Powers, Winona Hoch and Ruth Haw. The main events were diving races, strokes for form, speed and distance relays.

The participants were:

Seniors—Nadga Gray, Esther Wilberg, Gloria Finch, Bonnie Glendenning, Ruth Haw, Lucille Harris, Arleene Beilhalf, Luella Myton.

Juniors—Winona Hoch, Charlotte Ramsey, Helen Keating, Mildred Noland, Mary O'Connor, Vera Wheeler.

Sophomores—Helen Powers, Arleene McBride, Joan Gray, Virginia Truholf, Elizabeth Bowler, Isabel Peak, June Paulson, Dorothy Trox, Betty Holmes.

This shows the grand turnout that we had this year. Under Miss Hellner's supervision, we are now taking our life-saving test.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

GIRLS' BASKETBALL QUINTET

A spread brought to a close one of the most successful, enthusiastic and interesting basketball seasons the Santa Monica girls have ever had. The reason for this result can be easily analyzed when one takes into consideration the three class managers, Violet Doeg, sophomore manager; Barbara Handley, junior manager; and Dorothy Genter, senior manager. Three more capable girls for this place could not have been found anywhere among the some four hundred girls in Santa Monica High. The season could not have been successful without such able girls as the three captains, Alice Pearce, Patty Fowler, and Lois Pittenger; also our very efficient instructors, Miss Hellner, Miss Davis, and Miss Carroll; and, last but not least, the entire class squads, of which the sophomores far surpassed the juniors and seniors in sportsmanship, spirit, and number of girls that played basketball. Forty-eight sophomores, twenty seven juniors, and fifteen seniors tried out for the teams.

The senior first team won every game in which it competed. The sophomore second team was the champion among the second teams.

The two winning teams played the two alumni teams, the results being:

Senior vs. Alumni	7-4
Sophomore vs. Alumni	10-7

At the end of the season the honorary teams were chosen which included.

Esther Wilberg	Jumping Center
Eleanor Nelson, Elsie Leach, Charlotte Ramsey	Forwards
Mary Marshall, Lois Pittenger, Patty Fowler	Guards
Violet Doeg, Wathia Sims	Running Centers

GIRLS' TENNIS

BAY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

The girls of this season's tennis team have taken their tennis seriously and have practised faithfully. Samohi's first victory was at the Mid-Winter Inter-scholastic Tourney held at Fullerton, in which "Midge" Gladman came out with the honors and Doris Doeg was runner-up. Then followed the annual Dudley Cup tournament which resulted in "Midge" again being the winner. This made the third consecutive time that she had won the cup, which gave Samohi permanent possession of it.

The first league match was with Inglewood, in which our first singles were won 6-0, 6-1, first doubles 7-5, 6-1, second singles 6-0, 6-1. The second doubles team was defeated 6-2, 6-3. In our second match, with Compton, all the girls from Samohi won, while our third match against Woodrow Wilson was won by default.

Because of the early printing of the "Nautilus" the scores of the remaining two matches with Redondo and Huntington Park could not be determined. However, at the present time prospects for the Bay League Title look promising.

The team was as follows:

First singles	"MIDGE" GLADMAN
Second singles	VILOET DOEG
First doubles	MARGARET STURGEON, DORIS DOEG
Second doubles	RUTH KOCH, JANE HANDLEY

GIRLS' BASEBALL

GIRLS' BASEBALL SQUAD

The baseball season for girls was rather rushed this year. In the short time allowed for the practices there were about fifty girls who came out for the teams. Of these there were formed two sophomore teams, two junior teams, and one senior team. Miss Helmer devoted a great deal of her time to the coaching of these teams. This is the first year that the girls have really had any intensive coaching before playing. This is also the first year that the girls have been allowed to play with a hard ball instead of the regular indoor ball.

The first games of baseball this year were played at the play day held at Redondo. Both the first and second teams won their games. The girls, as well as the boys, have found a fine pitcher among the sophomores. She is Arleen "Mike" McBride, who surpasses any pitcher among the girls that Samohi has had for the last three years.

As this article goes to press the interclass games are being held in which the sophomores are favored to win.

AN INVESTMENT IN GOOD APPEARANCE

It isn't the "selling-price" that decides the value in a suit of clothes. Its the "wearing-price."

What you get per dollar . . . in mileage and "Styleage" . . . is more important than what you pay.

Men who "clock" their clothes . . . for quality and service . . . have discovered true economy begins at forty dollars. The character and stamina you want in clothes can't be produced for less.

*Learning
While Serving*

From boyhood it was said of Abraham Lincoln that he was a "learner". In his ambition to post himself he sat at the feet of whoever could teach him. In time he overtopped them all.

The "learner" rises above his competitors in all life's activities. He masters conditions because he learns all about them.

We sit at the feet of the public wherever we have Stores learning and posting ourselves of the needs of home and person as best we can.

Diligently applying ourselves to the responsible task of providing those needed when needed is the virtue to which may be traced much of the extraordinary development of this Company.

The small sophomore's idea of the ideal exam.:

1. How long did the Seven-Years'
war last?
2. Between what two countries was the French-Prussian war fought?
3. Describe the Swiss navy.
4. Prove that a square has four sides.
5. On what date is the Fourth of July?
6. Where is the Roman Coliseum?
7. In what year did the panic of 1878 take place?

All persons passing this exam are eligible for the Fairy Hall of Fame.

Barber (to one side): "Nex'."
Girl in chair: "What's it to you?"

"That's enough out of you," said the milkmaid as she moved on to the next cow.

Barber: "Do you want a hair cut?"
"Rooney: "Yes—I want them all cut."
Barber: "Any particular way?"
Rooney: "Yes off."

There, there, little piggy—
Don't you cry;
You'll be a football
Bye and bye.

A peach came walking down the street;
She was more than passing fair;
A smile, a nod, a half-closed eye,
And the peach became a pair.

Helen Keating: What do you think of a fellow who makes a girl blush?

Billy Yates: I think he's a wonder.

HER SECRET DOZEN

"I heard—"
"They say—"
"Everybody says—"
"Have you heard—"
"Then he said—"
"Isn't it just awful!"
"People say—"
"Did you ever—"
"Somebody told me—"
"I wouldn't have believed it."
"Would you think—"
"Don't say I told you!"
"It's supposed to be a secret."

Kmokriskivitch's answer is laughable and is typical of Russian humor.)

A magician was producing eggs from a hat. He addressed a boy in the front row, "Your mother can't get eggs without hens, can she?"

"Sure she can," replied the youngster, "she keeps ducks."

TO COLLEGE, OR WORK— WHICH?

Many young people from the leading homes of the Bay District study shorthand and typewriting at Willis Business School before entering College. Their parents know that a knowledge of shorthand and typewriting make it less difficult to attain better grades.

If you are planning to work, unless business trained, your opportunities for success are poor. A large percentage of the executives of America used a Business College training as a stepping-stone to success. As a matter of fact, practically every executive in America attended some Business School.

Regardless of your plans, a course in Business School is the best investment any Senior can possibly make. Ask any banker or business man if this is not true.

Our school is in session throughout the year. No contracts to sign, tuition payable by month only.

The finest young people of Santa Monica Bay make up our student body. The leading business houses on the Bay employ our students.

Is accredited by the United accredited association of Private Business Schools.

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to what the girls have been thinking of all winter.—Record.

Minister: Would you like to join us in the new missionary movement?

Fern Buckner: I'm crazy to try it.
Is it anything like the black bottom?

"Je t'adore!"

"Oh, shut it yourself!"

Speaker: I look into your bright and shining faces—"

Pat Terrill: Where's my powder?

Duffield: Are pancakes healthy?

Mr. Berg: I never heard of any being sick.

"That girl's dress reminds me of a good speech."

"Howzzat?"

"Long enough to cover the subject, but short enough to be interesting."

"And right in the middle of the floor
she began to shake—"

"The hussy!"

"No, the shimie."

Deaf plaintiff: "Your honor, this man owes me eleven dollars for groceries, which he refuses to pay."

Deaf defendant: "He's wrong, your honor—my dog never bit him."

Deaf judge: "There is merit on both sides. But she's your mother, you know, and accordingly you must support her."

Peggy Warren: "Father, what do you think of my new dress?"

Father (dryly): "Well, I would advise you to carry a large fan."

Breathes there a girl with soul so dead,
Who never to her sheik hath said:
Where do we eat?

Under the swinging street-car strap
The homely co-ed stands,
And stands, and stands, and stands,
and stands,
And stands, and stands, and stands.

Fern Buckner: Your mouth is open.
Oakley Haldeman: Yeh, and I opened it.

No high school fellow is as good as he tries to make his teachers believe, or as bad as he tries to make his best girl believe.

Son: Papa, who was Shylock?

Papa: Shame on you, son. Go read your Bible.

Royal Delp: What did Adam say when Eve handed him the apple?

Frances Baird: I'll bite.

Stew: An awful lot of girls are stuck on me.

Stein: Yeh, they must be an awful lot.

ADVICE TO THE SWIMMING TEAM

1. It would be advisable to avoid diving into the tank while it is empty.
2. Spectators should avoid shaking hands with divers while they are going.
3. Avoid getting wet and sunburned;
stay inside your locker.
4. Do not strike head on bottom.
5. If you feel yourself drowning, do not annoy the spectators by shouting,
but be optimistic and trust to luck.

Divie: What's all the riot in the science room.

Marshie: Oh, that's just Mr. Knupp rolling the bones.

You can lead an ass to college, but you can't keep him from braying.

An old maid is a girl who always walks home, and a bachelor is a guy who never owned a coupe when he was young.
